SPECIAL APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN LUANDA, ANGOLA, AFRICA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE PRAYER MEETING OF JULY 16

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The voice of truth will always be heard in Heaven and on Earth, for it is a voice that emerges from the heart, from the innermost depths of the essence of each being.

It is this voice that resounds today in the heart of Africa, the voice that cries out, the voice that invokes, the voice that asks the Heart of God for a loving and prompt intercession.

It is for this reason that I Am here again today, to respond to the voice of all supplications, to all those who elevate to the Heavens their purest and truest intentions.

For this reason, I Am here as your Mediator and Intercessor, as the Celestial Advocate, as the Mother of the impossible causes.

This is why My Heart opens again today as a great portal so that the thirstiest souls may cross it and, in the innermost depths of their spirits, in the most secret space within their consciousnesses, they may find the relief they seek so much, and rediscover the hope they have lost.

Behold the Mother of hope and joy, Who, in the name of Her Most Beloved Son Jesus, renews all things so that Creation may also be renewed and humanity may achieve the great time of redemption.

Today, your Heavenly Mother unites Her Holy Rosary with the Rosary of each one of you, to this Rosary of the heart that you can build and manifest day by day in your lives, in each act of love, in each gesture of mercy and pity, in each new opportunity to pray to God, not only for those who suffer in Africa, but also for the whole world, because the time of peace must return to the world after having been dissipated by wars and conflicts.

For this reason, today God is attentive to the voice of supplications, to the hearts that are faithful to the Lord and, through His Most Holy Heavenly Mother, the Celestial Father collects the prayers of those who ask and invoke God for a prompt and forthcoming solution that may benefit all hearts of the Earth.

This is why I Am here as the Mother of Grace, because the Grace of God is what allows this moment with you, My children. Just like yesterday, I tell you again that all of humanity must learn from that which is most sacred and immaculate in Africa, from its profound code of simplicity, but also from its profound gift of faith, which moves the entire universe and all events.

Although you do not perceive it, dear children, this is indeed perceived by your Father God, just as it is perceived by your Heavenly Mother and the Sacred Heart of Jesus, who sends Me as an Intercessor and Mediator to tell you that His Mercy will triumph and that the time of slavery will end, because the renewal will first take place within you. This is a gift of Grace, but it is also a virtue of God; this gift will promote healing and peace within souls in an unexplainable and miraculous way.

For this reason, do not give up, do not lower your arms, My children, raise them toward the Arms of the Mother of God, so that I may lift you up and raise you again from the ground. For this reason, I Am here, dear children, responding to the Call of My Beloved Son, responding to His spiritual summoning.

How many intentions exist within your hearts, which today your Heavenly Mother can observe and contemplate!

Know, dear children, that everything has a time to be resolved and clarified. This is why prayer will grant you this inner answer that you seek and need so much.

If I Am here, dear children, it is for a sacred cause but also for a Divine Purpose. Remember what I promised you, precisely two years ago, when I told you and revealed about the future but not so far-away manifestation of the new Saint Isabel's House, in honor of My holy spiritual cousin, who welcomes all souls in need by means of her spiritual presence.

This work must grow and also become stronger in these times, even overcoming the challenges of daily life, the obstacles or interferences. However, the power of the prayer of the heart will help you concretize the goal, because this is the Will of God, and God has determined it so. This new Saint Isabel's House will be a renewal and the beginning of a healing experience.

You deserve something better, dear children, always preserving the essence of the simplicity that will make you authentic and, above all, humble of heart. It is from the humility and simplicity of all of My beloved Africa that the whole world must learn in these times in order to correct the paths deviated from the Lord, in order to heal many souls from ambition, power and even the authority they believe they have.

Dear children, My beloved Africa is a school for all of humanity. Here, souls can learn if they open for this. The path of transformation is available, a transformation that is manifested through service, that is also manifested through charity and, above all, through being unconditional.

On this day I come to bless this new stage that must affirm itself in its manifestation, because the Project of God for this new house must descend from the Heavens, although this means and represents great effort.

I Am here to help you, to encourage you, to tell you: dear children, forward! My Hand will guide you to the pathway. My Heart will point to the path, and your consciousnesses and souls, united to My Consciousness and My Soul, will have wisdom.

Africa needs to expand its work of love and light, rescue and redemption of souls. This is what My Son expects; therefore, hold all this within your hearts and, in withdrawal, pray to God because everything has been said.

I will pray for this, My beloved children, just as I will perpetually pray for each one of you so that the light of Grace may reach your lives, just as the Grace of God comes to your lives at this moment. Receive it with gratitude and love.

Africa must be the new resurrected Eden and My Son wants to fulfill this promise before God. The voice of Africa will be heard one day and this will be fulfilled because it is written by the Loving Hand of God.

I love you and bless you again through My Peace, My Consoling Love and My Inexhaustible Motherhood toward each one of you.

I thank you!

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Those who have offered to consecrate themselves as Children of Mary, please draw near.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
