WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH TRANSMITTED AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

When the Divine Messengers are no longer manifesting Their Apparitions to the hearts of humankind, it will be the time and the hour to demonstrate to the world that the codes of Love and Wisdom of the Divine Source were placed in your hearts and have brought about results.

For this reason, you will be tested in mutual love, in faith, in compassion and in mercy. You will be tested in charity and in pity, so you may bear witness to what you have learned.

From your mouth will overflow what is in your hearts; your verb will demonstrate what there is within you. You will be tested in this way, by word and by silence, and the Creator will observe you so you may demonstrate, children, what you have learned in these times.

Will mercy and compassion, pity and truth come from your mouths? This is the time to measure your words and your silence, so that you may show the world what you truly are.

You will be tested through your actions. From your bodies will overflow what your consciousnesses are full of; your actions will demonstrate if you were capable of assimilating the Christic codes, or if they are hidden or even buried in the depths of the consciousness.

Souls today, children, have need of examples of souls that are capable of allowing the Christic codes they received to shine through.

Will your actions be of unity or of separateness?

Will you show charity or indifference?

Will you demonstrate love or mercilessly destroy?

Your beings will be tested in the mind and the emotions. Your thoughts and feelings will overflow with what your subconscious is full of.

Will you be capable of transmuting yourselves with the power of prayer and Eucharistic adoration or will you allow yourselves to be poisoned with the same collective thought and feelings that lead humanity into the destruction of their purest principles?

The silence of the Divine Messengers will not mean abandonment, children, but rather the moment of the last apostles testifying to the Christic life, of unity above the stimuli of war that permeate the human consciousness, of love above the stimuli of hatred, of forgiveness above the stimuli of vengeance and judgment.

This will be the time to transcend, from the inside out, the mundane stimuli, the feeling of power and superiority that has always led humanity into disunity and into destruction of their Higher Purpose.

Will you choose to go beyond your own thoughts and beliefs to unite and love or will you experience the same errors that, time after time, have caused you to become lost as a civilization? It is time to not only reflect, but to live; it is time to transmit peace to a world in wars.

From your mouth will overflow that which your heart is full of; from your actions will overflow that which your consciousness is full of; from your thoughts and feeling will overflow that which your subconscious is full of.

For this reason, pray and elevate yourselves, transcend yourselves and live this test of humanity, making known to the world that which you received in the last 17 years, which are Christic impulses of Love and Wisdom that must find expression in your lives.

You have My blessing for this.

Your father and friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
