APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN FATIMA, PORTUGAL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, DURING THE SACRED CALL

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Draw near Me, to feel My Peace.

Draw near Me, to receive My Love.

Draw near Me, to console My Heart.

Draw near Me, so that your soul may be instructed by me and I may broadly show you all the treasures of Heaven that My Father holds with love for all created souls and essences.

See before you, in what is most invisible of life, in the innermost depth of your consciousness, this vast universe to which you belong, where no force contrary to Me can prevail or reign, because the Love of God is capable of dissolving any knot, it is capable of transcending any obstacle, it is capable of revealing the Truth.

See this inner universe that I present to you today, from which you and your brothers and sisters emerged, the place where lies the answer that many seek, in order to understand and accept that, in this world, each one must transcend their own duality.

Why do souls seek to suffer so as to be able to learn?

What is this very hidden mystery that souls must understand and live, through an infinite and unfathomable obedience?

Because if in Heaven there once was a creator angel that fell into the abyss, from this moment on evolution had its school changed, and all the essences that would be created in this Material Universe should learn from the school of duality.

But how to overcome and transcend that obstacle placed by one's own consciousness? How to untie that knot that binds the consciousness and many times prevents it from taking steps toward spiritual freedom?

I repeat to you again, as I repeat to you today in person, that the first rule lies in the unfathomable obedience, in which your own being and your own soul will be protected and safeguarded from yourself.

All those who have decided to be with Me, throughout the times and generations, first of all accepted to live this unfathomable obedience, knowing that this would represent a significant inner effort to transcend their own human will, to become detached from the compulsive conditions of the personality and to be free from their own ideas.

To be under this unfathomable obedience to God is neither impossible nor unattainable. To be under this obedience to God is one of the greatest Graces that you can receive.

Today, I open to you a door that you might say that you already know; but I assure you that you absolutely do not know it. It is the door of the unfathomable obedience, which I present to you not as a rule or as an imposition, but rather as a Sacred Law that places the incarnated consciousness on the safe path of righteousness, of what is impersonal and free from any attachment. Because obedience, in its hidden and anonymous mystery, is a cosmic current of liberation, which no contrary force can bear.

If you have seen yourself, at any moment, outside of the Law of Obedience, did you wonder: "Why have I done this?"?

What is the reason, the spiritual, mental and human motivation to come out of this Sacred Law, which supports very few in this world, in the face of this chaotic planetary scenario, in which disobedience is the fashion that many follow in these times?

How would it be possible for more souls, on the surface of this planet, to understand the reason and the existence of their own incarnation?

There is only one path, which your Master and Lord, your Most Holy Mother and the chaste father Saint Joseph lived on this planet, through the sacred and unfathomable obedience.

Obedience does not mean only to respond; obedience is the first emanation of Love-Wisdom, it is a hidden science of the Holy Spirit, which fosters in souls and inner worlds the expression of the gifts and bestowals of God in hearts.

And this Work, which, during thirty-seven consecutive years, was conceived by the Will of God, was born, emerged and manifested through the obedience of a few souls who said 'yes' to the call.

Thus, thirty-seven years ago, a spiritual and anonymous door was opened in the world, because the very hands of the Hierarchy sowed that little Figueira in the sacred soil, so that it could grow through the sacred watering of instruction, through unfathomable reverence for the universal and inner knowledge, so that, after thirty-seven years, this Sacred Figueira, the Fig Tree, could yield its fruits in abundance and love for souls, for the manifestation of inner life in all the hearts that were self-summoned through My brother and friend José Trigueirinho.

You, throughout the times, have had the Grace of having a humble example in life; an example of abnegation, of renunciation, of loyalty, of love and brotherhood for all the Divine Consciousness, through your brother José.

Today with Me from Heaven, where he prays and implores for all his companions, he places, at the doors of My Heart, all this experience lived through Figueira and, by means of Figueira, in other Points of Light that have emerged in the world through the Grace of trust of those who have said 'yes'.

All this will never disappear, because it has never been erased, because what God writes with His own Hand, through lives and hearts, can never be erased or disappear, even what He wrote with His own Hand through the humble life example of José.

Today, I would like you to be aware that you did not receive just any person; rather, you received an important Elder Brother who, with his anonymous life example, his service for the expansion of consciousnesses, always remained in righteousness and self-giving, knowing that the great commitment of your brother José was to take care of what was being sown in each heart that was touched by his voice, by his gaze or by his mere presence.

Thus, before this spiritual door that was opened in Figueira, throughout the times and generations, souls were touched by the impulse of the call, and this will not be deterred, because the legacy that was entrusted through the expression of souls in Figueira is something that will always be perpetuated on the inner planes and especially in all those who preserve it, first from themselves and then from the world, knowing that the treasures of Figueira that were entrusted by the Hierarchy are the values of fraternity and the evolutionary group life.

I want the bell towers of Figueira to resound in each inner world after this month of August, with the call of the Hierarchy that brings you hope and what is to come for all those who were one day called to be part of this Work of Love.

Because this Work is one of those that I have in the world, one of the many works in this world that, if it did not exist in obedience to the Hierarchy, the transition of the planet and of humanity could not be sustained without sacrifice, selflessness and renunciation, free from vainglory, free from the desire to stand out, free from any authority or power; because just as God has given you everything, He could take everything away from you.

Embrace the flame of humility that I offer to you today. May your lives be surrendered and be redeemed, so that the sacred treasures of Heaven may continue to be deposited, not only in Figueira, but also in the souls who say 'yes', because we are now in the preparatory time of My Return to the world, and nothing must be in vain.

I would like to publicly thank all those who, throughout the times, have remained in fidelity to the Hierarchy, learning every day from obedience, loyalty, truth and service out of love for Our Creator and for the redemption of this humanity.

This is something invaluable, because it cannot be measured or judged with the mind; the fidelity of a heart united to the Hierarchy is one of the greatest reliefs that you grant to My Heart.

On this day, may there be a rebirth for those who, through faith and fidelity, built with their own hands the foundations of this Work of the Hierarchy so that souls, regardless of their conditions, traumas or sufferings, might have a safe, simple and inner space to re-encounter God and the Heart of the Hierarchy.

Today it is My Hand that writes a new history. Happy will be those who are part of it, because My promise will be fulfilled in all those who say 'yes' to Me.

Oh, Sacred Figueira of Light, which is anonymous, secret and internal,
give your fruits to the Lord,
the fruits of the conversion and service of souls,
so that, through the effort of your children,
disciples and brothers and sisters of José,
the fruits of conversion and service of souls
may be lovingly offered at the Feet of your Creator.

May the power of My Precious Blood sanctify you to sanctify and liberate all faithful servers that have been wounded or hurt.

Today, I come to repair what is broken.

Today, I come to rebuild, with My own Hands,
what has fallen to the ground
which is the dignity of all children and friends, companions and servers of José.

On the eve of divine hope, may as many hearts as possible find the doorway of My Peace.

I bless you in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
