

Sunday, December 15, 2024

APPARITION OF SAINT JOSEPH AT THE LIGHT-NUCLEUS SACRED HOUSE OF MARY, MOTHER OF SAO PAULO, SÃO PAULO, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS FOR THE PRAYER MEETING ON THE 19TH

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

May your hearts be at peace.

May your hearts always be at peace.

May your hearts be in the truth, in transparency, and above all, children, in the Love of God.

May your hearts be at peace, in spite of what may happen in these times, in spite of the chaos, the indifference, or the incoherencies.

May your hearts learn to be at peace.

May your feet learn to walk on the solid foundation of the Instruction We give you. But for this, children, you need to persist, and not desist in the face of adversities.

In order to learn to consolidate the fortitude of your hearts, you need to go beyond what causes you discomfort and even suffering; you need to go beyond.

In each instant of these times, may your hearts always seek the Christ of Calvary. Remember to be in His Heart, not only feeling His suffering, but also experiencing His fortitude.

Did the Lord desist in the face of humiliation?

Did the Lord desist in the face of weariness?

Did the Lord desist in the face of suffering?

Did the Lord desist in the face of loneliness?

Enter into the Heart of the Christ of Calvary, for there you will find fortitude, there you will find the love for loving the impossible, there you will find joy, spiritual joy, to continue forward each day, to experience the renewal of spirit regardless of what may happen in the world.

How many times have I already told you, children, that humanity must be purified and go through unknown and unthinkable tests? How many times have I warned you that this time is like the Calvary of Christ, that just as the Lord experienced His tests, all the beings of this Earth must experience them, so that, in this way, from within them may emerge that unknown love?

Thus, hold peace in your hearts. Always seek that peace through the true prayer of the heart, through transparency, truth, through the perfect union with God.

Simply be before the Celestial Father, and remaining there, allow Him to renew you, allow Him to withdraw you from the darkness of the human condition and to help you be consistent with what pulsates within you.

This is the essence of spiritual life: to be consistent with what you believe in through words, actions, thoughts, and feelings. The expression of your lives must be consistent with what you believe in your heart. This is where your attention should be, this is where your constant striving should be, not in seeking that others be consistent, not in seeking that others be perfect, not in seeking that others take steps so that then you may be inspired to walk.

There has already been Someone, children, Who took all the steps, Who was an example and Who perfectly expressed what dwelled within Him; and this is the Christ of Calvary.

For this reason, when you thirst for examples, focus your eyes upon the Christ of Calvary. When you have need of a reference for love and of life, focus your eyes on the Christ of Calvary. When you have need of an impulse and a starting point for renewing your hearts, focus your eyes on the Christ of Calvary, and therein will lie the answer.

Keep your hearts at peace and do not desist. You are yet to see incredible, unthinkable things, but I ask that you remember My Words and keep your hearts at peace.

When the disciples and apostles of Christ finally believed that He was the Son of God, the Messiah awaited by all nations, it was then that the Calvary began. And all their beliefs crumbled and broke, all their whole human condition, their hope and their faith were torn from their heart.

How could it be possible for the Son of God to be humiliated like a thief, to be scourged and killed like a lamb, with a malice that was not even possible towards animals, with the human brutality of that era?

This is your reference point so that your sufferings may become small, so you may understand that the tests of these times are only a part of what Christ experienced in Calvary. He took the first step, He opened the great door, and now invites you to enter, not to suffer as He suffered, but to love as He loved.

May your hearts be at peace, the peace that I bring to you from the Kingdom of the Heavens, the peace that I grant to your souls and also to your guardian angels, so that they may always remind you of the path of return to the Heart of the Father.

Never forget your guardian angels, for they will be of great strength to you when you are losing your strength. Count on that powerful intercession which walks always by your side, a symbol of the perfect Love of God for life and for the human consciousness, Who, sending His children among the dimensions, also sent a companion, a guardian, a messenger of peace, that could always remind you of the path of return.

On this day, live the synthesis of this last cycle. That is why I am here, to gather up your intentions into My Chaste Heart, to heal the deep wounds, and to renew your spirits in the Grace of intercession. Thus, be at peace and feel the peace that I grant you today.

Today I cause the lily that I once placed in your essences to blossom again so that it may strengthen you. There is still a long way to walk, there is still much to be done, and above all, children, there is still much to love, to renew the Love of God, to experience miracles, to intercede for the impossible, and to testify to the transformation of the human consciousness.

Sister Lucía de Jesús:

Those who will consecrate themselves as Children and Friends of Saint Joseph may stand up.

We may bring incense and blessed water.

Just as the Lord gave His disciples missions that seemed impossible to be experienced, but also granted them a Spirit of Peace, of Wisdom, and of Consolation, today, children, I ask that you be at peace in a time of chaos, of suffering, of ignorance, but through the intercession of God, through the merits of My Chaste Heart, I grant you the Spirit of Peace, the Consoling Spirit, the Spirit of Wisdom, so that you do not lack, so that you may be strong in Christ and your eyes may be fixed on the Christ of Calvary, for He will guide you on this journey of spiritual ascension, on this unknown path of renewal of the Love of God.

With this water, a symbol of the Purity of the Heart of the Father, may your spirits be washed clean of all you have experienced until now, that you receive forgiveness for your faults, healing for your souls, your cells, your minds, your hearts. May this water purify you and renew you in this moment of consecration.

May this incense, as a pleasing offering to God, uplift your souls to the Heart of the Father, release the ties and all that binds you to this world, and grant you a deep union with the Creator, because for this you were born, for this you came to this world. Be a bridge to the Heart of the Father through your life.

And today a soul, with its faith, has granted you a Grace. Through the candles they placed on My alter, trusting in the intercession of My Chaste Heart, they opened a new possibility for all the Children and Friends of Saint Joseph: that at each consecration you receive a candle so that, when you are in need of an intercession for something that seems impossible, you may light this small candle and pray with Me with faith, so My Heart may intercede and resolve that which seems impossible, because when you unite to the Will of the Father, nothing is impossible, My children.

Feel My Presence, My fatherly Love, My embrace in your spirits and the support I grant you. I am always with you, far beyond whether you hear My Words or not.

May the moments of the Apparition not become something you depend on, but rather an impulse that you are to multiply and renew each day. Everything has already been said to you, everything has already been given to you.

Whenever you return to the Words We have spoken to you in these last years, you will gather from between the lines the Grace, Mercy, and Strength they contain. For this reason, study, remember, relive, and everything will be there.

By the Light that emerged from My Chaste Heart, through the gift of the renunciations experienced and offered to the Heart of the Father, I grant you that Light, so you can illuminate the dark spaces of consciousness and find peace again.

Make your offerings in the silence of your hearts. I am listening.

And to bring this meeting with Me to a conclusion, My children, receive the Sacrament of Anointment while you sing the hymn of your consecration. I leave you My Peace, My Love, and My Intercession, and I consecrate you as Children and Friends of My Chaste Heart.

Testify to My Presence through the actions in your lives, the service and sincere prayer, and I will testify that you are My children, for I will always listen to you and will perform miracles in your consciousnesses.

Receive My blessing and My peace.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.