SPECIAL APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE CHRISTMAS PRAYER MEETING

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Even when the crust of the Earth seems to be dark, the Light of the Star of Bethlehem shines in humanity, bringing the cosmic impulse of God to Creation and the planet.

It is to this that I want to take you today, where your spirits need to elevate to unite to the Essence of Creation and the Universe; remembering in this time and at this hour that God has a Project for this humanity and the planet, just as He has written His Will for each human heart.

Remember that living the Will of God is not impossible. Behold the Slave of the Lord, Who heard the call of God within Herself, through the presence of Archangel Gabriel.

Today I want you to remember and keep very much in mind that this Call of God continues to resound in this universe and, above all, in the inner worlds that are open to hear it.

This call resounds through your guardian angel, an invisible and unfathomable Eternal Presence of the Father, unconditional and anonymous service that accompanies all apostles of Christ in their walk upon Earth.

I want you today not only to contemplate the Birth of Christ within your inner worlds but also to be aware, in this important hour of the planet, about what Christ needs to build through this Work, formed of souls that were self-summoned from times past.

Thus, My Son will be able to intercede and intervene in humanity, especially in the causes that seem impossible or difficult to resolve; and thus also, through His Grace and Love, My Son will be able to intercede in the aspects of your consciousnesses that still do not want to be transformed.

Even so, follow the path that I indicate to you today, the path toward inner purity and innocence, which each one of your souls and each one of the souls of your brothers and sisters have been able to conceive from the womb of your mothers, during your gestation.

Imagine how wonderful God's Creation is; because just as Jesus, still a child, reflected the incarnated Purity and Innocence of God, each one of you and your brothers and sisters in this world, who come from the same Creative Source, from the same spaces of this Greater Universe, hold this small molecule of Light that reminds you of your inner purity and innocence.

Today I am not speaking to you about childishness but rather about a mature purity and innocence that are united to the Source of Creation and the Will of the Father. This is what humanity needs to recover so that wars may end, so that conflicts may dissolve, so that your own resistances may be transformed.

Beloved children, there is no other way but love, the mature love that My Son taught you and continues to teach you, the love that accepts and includes, the love that surrenders and resigns, the mature love that humbles itself before the Celestial Father to see itself as insignificant and small within this great universe, just as your Heavenly Mother saw Herself before Archangel Gabriel.

For this reason, I place the Mirror of My Heart at your disposal today, and by means of this sacred meeting and this moment, through My Immaculate Heart, I reflect this principle of the Innocence and Purity of God so that you yourselves and your brothers and sisters may recover it; and you may think, "how can we do it?"

Dear children, everything begins with your intentions and thoughts, and this will end up by reflecting on your decisions.

For this reason, God is attentive to this moment and to this special spiritual conjuncture of the Birth of Christ; because today we are not celebrating a historic date but rather the remembrance of the incarnated Living God's sacrifice through His Son, Who offered Himself out of love for you to grant you your salvation through Christ.

And this must not be something transitory. Make good use of this moment and this conjuncture before the presence of the Spiritual Hierarchy itself, before the Kingdom of Mirna Jad, which shines today in a special way within your inner worlds so that you may be able to drink again from the source and its healing principles.

What is it that you still have not been able to heal?

What is it that you still have not been able to forgive?

What is it that you still have not been able to accept and recognize?

What is the barrier that places itself between you and God preventing you from accepting His Will in absolute surrender?

Beloved children, avail yourselves of this spiritual conjuncture of the Birth of Christ.

Turn to your own beings to again find your inner child; not to remember your traumas and wounds but rather to remember and resume your innocence and purity.

Your guardian angels open this door so that many more inner children may be healed, and hearts may no longer remain hardened, indifferent to the Call of God, indifferent to the change and to this moment that the Hierarchy blesses and consecrates for you to resume the essence of your group and evolutionary life.

How many times did the apostles have to resume the path that Christ was indicating to them, dear children? How many times did they have to realize they were mistaken, that they should be humble and simple, to fulfill the Law of the Lord with righteousness?

Without humility nothing can be done, My beloved children. God could not be God if He were not humble. Accept the school of His humility, and you will be free of yourselves.

My silence also contemplates the needs and prayers of the world on this day, when everyone has the Grace of being reconsecrated to the Child King so that the foundations of His Work may be strengthened, so that His spiritual principles may be fulfilled, so that the flame of the Divine Purpose of God may continue to illuminate the path of all disciples of Christ on this dark night that each one is learning to live and go through.

However, I ask you, My dear children, not stop in your own darkness but rather look to the depth of the path, to the end of the spiritual path, and see how the Light of God begins to emerge; because Christ incarnated to let the world know that He is the Light of the world, the Lord of the world, the King of the Universe.

His Light cannot blind you because His Light comes to guide you, to take you to the Kingdom of God, where God hopes to have you close, in consciousness and wisdom.

Today Christ, My Son, contemplates in His Hands the Plan that God gave Him for this Work and for so many kind works in the world. And this project will be fulfilled only through souls, through those who imitate the resignation of Mary and the yes of the Mother of God to God through Archangel Gabriel.

Contemplate and live this spiritual moment, the yes of Mary. For this reason, today the redemption of the world is possible, the liberation from evil, the transformation and conversion of hearts, the consecration of families, healing of the inner worlds and all Graces granted and those that can be granted to the hearts that are faithful to the Lord.

O sacred people of Israel!
extended today on the whole face of the Earth,
stand up and walk.

Listen to the Voice of the Lord, your God, which echoes like a great thunder in this universe
while His Love reflects as a great fruit within the hearts that trust in Adonai.

Follow the steps that the Lord your God is indicating to you, O Israel!

Do not resist, do not retrogress, but advance through the Light that blesses your path and each one of your steps.

O Israel, sacred people, make yourself worthy before God, Our Lord!
Be the reflection of His eternal Will,
of His immeasurable Love and Unity.
The keys have been given to you,
open the doors to the new time, O Israel!
The Lord is now returning.
The Lord is now arriving.

Prepare yourself internally to recognize the Light of His Face and the presence of His Heart.

Disciples of Israel, the preparatory time has come for the Return of Christ. Will you accompany Him?

By the Light and Grace that bless this moment, I thank you for responding to My call and for opening the hearing of the heart to listen to the Sacred Word of God through His Slave, the Mother of the World.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
