

Wednesday, February 4, 2015

EXTRA MESSAGE OF GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED FOR THE 19th MARATHON OF THE DIVINE MERCY, IN THE SACRED HOUSE OF MARY, MOTHER PAULISTA TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

My most pure channel of Mercy has been opened in this place, so that all the thirsty souls may come here and drink from My Sacred Source of Graces.

I come to this place by means of My Glory and not of My Justice and although many souls may blaspheme the Name of God, My Divine and Unfathomable Mercy is poured over the lost souls of this city, hoping that someday they may reach redemption.

Today My Sacerdotal and Merciful Spirit gathers you again so that each one of My prayerful ones may once more confirm themselves in the consecration to My Sacred Heart.

In Grace and Piety I descend to the world together with the Hosts of the Archangel Michael, to remove the spirits that disturb the souls of God. In this way, My Sovereign Power liberates you, transmutes you and takes away from you the ties that do not allow you to walk in confidence towards My Most Sacred Heart.

But through the constancy of the Adorers of My Eucharistic Body, you, My companions, have received the Grace of My Holy inner and spiritual Presence.

Thus, I congregate you again and again around My Table, so that you may always remember that I will be waiting for you, so that every day of your lives you may commune of My Body and of My Blood.

The whole humanity faces in this 21st century the first moment of the Divine Justice, but every day at 3 pm, when the clock strikes the time of My Death on the Cross, I pour from the Universe, the Source of Salvation and of Redemption.

Now that you have already been formed as soldiers of prayer, I hope in the silence that you walk among darkness, and that you do not fear to face the old self, to whom time to die has come so that the Light of the Creator may be born in all of you.

While millions of living souls all over the Earth are facing the planetary transition, in the Humility of God and in the name of love, I bow before My ones so that they may ascend to the Eternal Father through the stairway to Heaven which today I internally show to all.

I hope that you love more each day, because in truth I tell you, it will be the love of the heart that will defeat all evil and will resurrect the dead, as well as I once resurrected many in the past.

For this reason and for an infinite purpose, I descend in light in this place and in this city, so that in time, the souls may recognize My call to live redemption, penance and the reconciliation through the Ecumenical Communion.

While I wait for the souls to wake up, I come on this glorious day to strengthen the vows that many have made with My Sacred Heart, which today is shown to the world trespassed by the crowns of thorns that unfair souls put on Me day by day.

But today I tell you that the strength of your love is what has allowed Me to be among you and with all the hearts of the world that suffers.

The world fades without being able to see the light, and each act that you may offer to Me for the times to come, will allow one soul to be rescued by My Love.

May this Marathon represent the confirmation of your spirits to the planetary mission, which will manifest itself through the unity between your small hearts.

Under the Glory of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be blessed and brave.

Thank you, My companions, for removing the ungrateful thorns from My sorrowful Heart.

Christ Jesus, your King

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

For Christ to be able to arrive here, He had to make a great spiritual movement, which was accompanied by the song we were singing.

He said that today He came accompanied by the hosts of Archangel Michael, and manifested Himself as a Priest.

Then, He presented Himself as the Sacred Heart pierced by the ungrateful thorns of the world. And, through this presence, He permanently showed Himself and gave each one of us a very concrete example of how this planetary reality is; in this case, here, in Sao Paulo. But while He showed this situation of the souls of Sao Paulo, regarding ingratitude, He gradually also showed several things that were happening in the world.

The moment the Master appeared, He extended His arms and opened His Hands towards us, as a Priest. And under His feet the whole world was manifested. It showed various little dots that revealed several situations on the planet.

At that moment, Christ began to give His Message, and He called each one of us to be in deep serenity, because it will be the way we will be able to face the end of times.

For the first time after so much time, in the Messages that are transmitted by Christ for each Marathon, He extends Himself in His dialog through this Message. At a certain moment, we thought He would not cease to speak, and, from what we saw here, He wrote various pages, because He knows it is necessary for each one of us to understand what His Sacred Heart is feeling at this moment, concerning what is happening in this world, in this twenty-first century.