APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN MINAS, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

I Am the Bird that soars over all spaces and observes each of the hearts of the world.

I Am the Spirit of God that comes into your lives to completely transform them.

I Am the Queen of Peace, Who brings peace to souls, to hearts, to those who so lack peace.

My children, I Am the Mother of each of your essences. From My Sacred Womb come forth all creatures.

I Am the Servant of God, because from Him comes My Consciousness.

I was created to conceive, to serve the Creator of all the universes, to be His Maternal Spirit, the One who takes in His Creatures and leads them to the fulfillment of His Greater Plan.

My children, I Am the Healing for your souls, for your spirits, as well as for the cells of your bodies.

I Am the Healing for this planet, because through My Heart you will find the path to a true awakening, which will remove from your lives all the illnesses which this world has caused.

I am speaking this evening about the illnesses of the body, but also the illnesses of the spirit that distance souls from God and tie them to the illusions of this world.

For this reason, My dear ones, I have called each one of your souls so that they would come here, and in this sacred hour, I receive into My Arms all your pleas, which represent the pleas of humanity so that, among the creatures of God, these illnesses no longer exist in the world, illnesses that do not allow you to reach the Celestial Kingdom, that do not allow you to open the doors through the love of the heart so that a new time may come into this world.

My children, many of My Words are incomprehensible to the beings of this Earth, because they have not opened themselves to discover a life that exists beyond this world, and that I come to reveal to you, as your Mother and Lady, because through Me, you will find a safe path.

In My Heart, My children, you will find the path to reach the Heart of Christ, and there, in the Heart of My Son, all the Truths will be found.

I want you to trust in My Presence, not only on this day, but every day of your lives. For I observe you day and night and wait for that small instant when your hearts open so that My Light can enter this world, and through a single heart that opens, It is able to reach all souls, no matter where they may be.

I want you to discover a safe path in My Presence, a path that you did not find in other times of your lives.

In My Heart, My children, there will be no deception, there will be no abandonment nor distrust. Thus, come into My Arms, that today open before you and that invite you to return to the Celestial Origin.

Today My Heart lights up because of the joy I feel on this night, because many of My children in the world are responding to My call. But I still need to reach many souls that live in darkness and do not know the Truth and Paradise, which is a reality in the universe, a reality that all consciousnesses must access at some time.

Just as two thousand years ago, My Son showed you the Way, the Truth and the Life, through surrender and sacrifice, through Love for all creatures, today My children, I come before My Son so that souls that did not respond to His Call at that time may not miss another chance. My Son will return, He will come to the world in search of those who have lost their way on the path.

And at this time, My Immaculate Heart comes to say to you that through prayer you will be able to strengthen your hearts, awaken your consciousnesses, bring relief to the despair of this world, and in the future you will be able to recognize who will be the true Christ, because the one who prays, My children, will not be deceived by the enemy, who so many times will try to delude the souls of the world, even through spiritual things.

Thus I say to you that My Heart will be a safe path, because you will be able to feel the truth of My Presence in your essences, and eye to eye with My Son, you will never doubt that He is the One Who is fulfilling His promise, which after two thousand years, will be accomplished.

On this evening, I want to come as close to My children as the Heart of the Celestial Father allows, and in this way, thank you for having responded to My call.

On this evening, I want to reveal to you the great importance of having allowed Me to come to this city, which represents for the world the redemption of all the Kingdoms of Nature.

My children, if you could see through My Eyes and feel with My Heart the immense pain felt by the Kingdoms of this world, you would praise God eternally for the liberation He has granted to His Servant to carry out in this world through the intercession of His Children.

Today My Heart has a great reason to be joyful, because many more have responded to My call and have received My Mantle upon their bodies, as a symbol of protection, as living witnesses of My Presence and My Love for humanity.

Today I want to consecrate these little children who have accepted to respond to My call. Some without knowing why, but who accepted and today come into My Presence so I could bless them and eternally thank them through the merits they have generated in the universe for the redemption of this world and all the souls that live on Earth. One day, My children, you will understand what you are experiencing today and which is so unknown to your souls and your minds.

I consecrate you and bless you in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

And I encourage all those who listen to Me to respond to My call with their hearts, to consecrate their lives, their homes to true prayer so that all evil can be released from this world, and all souls as well as all the Kingdoms of Nature can finally achieve redemption.

On this night I also thank all those children of Mine who responded to My call in other parts of this world, who went to serve souls who were sick in body and heart and were needing My encouragement and the encouragement of My Son so that a new door could be opened in this world.

I thank you My children, for responding to My call. Go forth in peace and bring peace to the world.

Sister Lucía de Jesús:

At the request of the Divine Mother, we will now listen to a song called "Faces of the Divine Mother."

Description of the Apparition:

Today our Divine Mother came as the Queen of Peace.

During the prayer, the mountains, the hills around us began to glow in several different colors, and it was as if the Kingdoms were praising our Divine Mother. As She approached the Earth, portals of Light began to open until She appeared above the brothers and sisters present here.

At a certain point, She descended a little more and Her Feet nearly touched the heads of these brothers and sisters standing here at the front. What She was radiating was so intense that She made our beings transparent, and it was as if She could see everything about each of us, while transmitting to us the profound Love She felt for each of us.

She was grateful for the possibility of being here today, to truly be here on these two days, because She carried out an important liberation for the Kingdoms of Nature, which had repercussions not only in this place, but in the whole world, as She explained to us.

To finalize this work, we want to thank everybody very much for their presence, and we invite you to continue to follow our Divine Mother through prayer, through reconciliation with your families, through forgiveness, through love, which are the keys She gave us today, through which She remains present in our lives. Thank you all very much.

Thank You, Mother, for all that You give us!
