WEEKLY MESSAGE OF THE VIRGIN MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Today I come here to embrace you with the pure Love of My Son, because that is the main cause which My Son carries forward to be able to accomplish His Project in each of the souls and hearts.

When something seems to be coming to an end, it is because something new is about to begin. And, as I have told you in the last days, My Maternal Presence will not disappear from you, even though in this time, you should already be walking on your own feet.

But I will be there in the silence, in the silence of a Mother Who contemplates and loves, of a Mother Who comforts and supports, of a Mother Who only takes Her children to the Heart of Christ.

That is why I am here again and again, and I descend to the world to help the souls of Christ; because it is very easy, My children, to go astray from the path of Light and especially in this time of so much interference and confusion.

But today, I also come here with the delight of My Spirit, that joy which God felt in His Eternal Heart, on knowing that through His First-Born Son He could incarnate in the world to be able to redeem and save it.

That is the joy which My Heart of a Mother feels, which I have come to share with each of your hearts, because the most important thing in this time is that each one of My children may be in peace, living in confidence what you are to live, patiently experiencing what you must experience, because this time had already been foreseen and had been written.

This is the time, My beloved ones, when each one on their own must submerge in the ocean of Trust in God so as to be filled by His Holy Unity, to be filled by His Eternal Love that will always help you to move forward, in spite of the dark night of the planet.

I ask that you no longer be afraid to face what each one must face in themselves, because if My own Son, in His own persona, faced all the errors and sins of the world and, furthermore, He surrendered on the Cross for you, in a similar and profound way you too can experience it.

I do not want you to be discouraged, but that you have faith, a faith that brings you the hope of not seeing all the dark reality, but rather seeing in the firmament that Point of Light that is the Consciousness of God, a Light that encompasses all of this universe and all of this Creation, so that He may renew His Love in souls through the experience itself of Love, that you are able to live daily.

Because, just as My Beloved Son, in each step of His Passion, lived the experience of Love in His own flesh, this is the long-promised hour, My children, in which you yourselves are able to also live the degrees of Love, a Christic Love, capable of going beyond all situations and conditions.

This is the great code I bring you today.

This is the Law that is being fulfilled here today, the Law of God's Love, and there is nothing, absolutely nothing that is above this Divine and Cosmic Love. There would have been no other reason for Christ to have incarnated in the world, except that of giving you the lesson of the Love of God which saved and converted many consciousnesses in the past; in the same way He tries to convert your hearts and lives into a model of the Love of God, the living Love of the Father. Because whoever is in God's Love, in the Love of the Father, can transmute, liberate and forgive all things.

When God's Love is not present among you or is not present in you, His Will is not accomplished, but rather, the conditioned personal human will is accomplished, which will lead you again and again to suffering and lack of peace.

But today, in light of My loving and humble Presence, I can stand before hearts that represent many nations and peoples, many experiences in the story of this humanity that, through the ages, beyond errors or sins, were authentic experiences that marked this race.

For this reason, as from this moment and at the eve of this next Sacred Week, I want you to be able to contemplate what is positive in life, the hope of being able to receive and live the human heart, the faith that is capable of placing you on the Path of God.

That is where My Son has need of you at this time, because Christ needs the help of His prayerful ones and servers so that, through His divine intercession, He is able to transmute the planet and humanity from so many uncertain doors that are open at this time. The Presence of the Sacred Hearts comes to raise hearts again to the Heaven of the Father. Our Divine Presences also come to close those uncertain doors, which only confuse souls on the Path of God.

The Holy Relics of Christ will again be present in these days; so that, through this Sacred Week, once again, each of your hearts and your essences are able to carry the Christic codes with you, those which were magnetized by Christ Himself, in each passage of His Passion, as well as in each moment He shared with His apostles and with His people.

You are that people of Christ which gathers together again in this place, like a flock called to live unity, reconsecration to the Purpose of God which must be accomplished in this time.

This is what Jesus expects of the consistent of heart, of those who do not fear to say yes to Him, for all those nations and for the angels of the nations that are represented here today; with love, sweetness and devotion, I come, once again, to grant consecration to new Children of Mary.

You can approach, My children; and in this way, everyone will have the Grace, at this time, of renewing the consecration to My Maternal and Immaculate Heart so that this Sacred Week may have the spiritual fruits that Christ expects, the fruits that must be given and placed in hearts; because the only place where God is present is in the heart.

My beloved children, it gives Me joy to have you here with Me, just as many times I had the Grace of being with the apostles and priests of Christ in the Holy Cenacle of the Lord; just as I had the Grace of accompanying My Son up until His Death on the Cross, at the top of Mount Calvary; just as I had the Grace of being with His people, with those who suffered, with those who endured, with those most humble among the humble, and the most poor among the poor; today I am a Mother before a group of souls that, in their inner silence, live the experience of the poverty of God, which cannot be understood with the mind, but only with the heart that loves Our Father-Mother Creator.

Today, I consecrate and bless souls, that have already been blessed and consecrated many times, through the signs they have received, in their lives, directly from Our Sacred Hearts.

Today, leave at My Feet that which takes you in. Leave at My Feet your sufferings, your uncertainties, and from My Heart receive peace, consolation, the same consolation that God gave Me when I saw My Son nailed to the Cross.

Thus, for those who are mothers, give Me your children, so I may give them to Jesus. And in this way, we exchange Our Hearts, so that in you, you may feel the Heart of the Mother of God and Her flame of Love that never goes out, that is never extinguished, the eternal flame of the Love of God, which rebuilds all things and repairs all things, through this holy consecration.

Continue to be good prayerful beings. Never forget to pray with Me. The world has need of many prayers so the darkness in life itself and in humanity can be dissolved.

Sons and daughters, God receives you through the Temple of My Heart. May your lives be a precious oratory for God, a living example of charity and of service, with a single purpose: to alleviate suffering and so that the long-awaited time of healing and peace may come, in as many souls as possible.

Under this inspiration of Mine, I consecrate you as My children, Children of Mary, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
