

Thursday, August 9, 2012

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Dear children,

May trust be the next spiritual goal that all your hearts will be able to radiate as worthy children of God. My little ones, may this trust between the creatures and the Supreme God be the new redeeming alliance for this humanity in need.

My children, today I call you to strengthen, by means of prayer, this same alliance which My Son established between His Sacred Heart and God. Dear children, may this purpose for your lives be the reason of your presence on Earth in such a way that if you keep this spiritual flame of God ignited, many creatures in need will be able to be helped by the Great Angels of the Lord in the final time.

Dear children, it is important to consider this in your life: to build in your dwelling the perfect union between the soul and God. And this unfathomable trust will begin through the act of love, a love that My Son teaches you to live in your life, a repairing and redeeming love.

For this reason, today I invite you to open your hearts to the Light of the Creator, Light that is being poured over all My children of humanity through My Maternal Presence among you.

My children, may your hearts ignite again with joy, in gratitude so that your lives can be eternally in the Lord.

Today I call you to live in this trust as it will take you towards faith, and faith will keep you in the devotion to My Immaculate Heart and to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. May Our humble Hearts be the essence of forgiveness and hope in your lives in the moments that humanity will live.

If prayer were the Light in all of the families of humanity, they would become sacred families, members of the Fraternity in these times.

I thank you!

Thank you for responding to My call.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity