

Prayer of the Surrendered Soul

On August 26, 2019, Our Lord transmitted the following prayer:

Regardless of how I find myself, I will follow You, Lord.

Regardless of what I may experience,
I will follow You, Lord, because I will only find rest and new strength when I am standing before Your compassionate Presence.

Regardless of what I go through, in spite of the very difficult and cold spiritual desert, I will follow You, Lord, because we absolutely owe it all to You, and there is nothing that prevents us from making our confirmation to follow Your path of Redemption and Love.

Regardless of what I feel, what I see or believe,
I will follow You, Lord, because I need to learn to surrender, just as You surrendered for each one of us.

Lord, do not allow the illusions and mirages of this world to confuse me.

At each moment, may I find the luminous and inextinguishable flame of Your wonderful Love, so that, availing myself of Your deepest and most mysterious gifts, I may represent You as Your apostle and ambassador of peace.

Lord, do not let my own miseries drag me towards the abysses.

Make me brave and decided so that I may always find You upon my imperfect path.

Sustain me, Lord, in the moments in which I do not understand nor manage to transcend everything that surrounds me.

Help me, Jesus, to be immeasurably merciful.

Take from my consciousness any sign of mediocrity and of lack of fraternity, because at the end of this long walk, in the search of Your Divine Presence, I will be able to understand, Lord, that life is a gift of God, and that it is full of opportunities so that we can sincerely love, as You have always loved us.

Regardless of the weariness, the misunderstandings and the most intimate secrets that You know, Lord, I will follow You, because the great and only merit of my life will be to serve You and suffer with You that which You see within the world, so that ignorance, indifference and futility may be alleviated from Your Heart, through the surrender that today I make of my life for You.

Do not abandon me, Jesus, I need You and wait for You with the ardor of my human heart.

Amen.
