

Prayer of the Sacrificed Soul

On August 29, 2019, Our Lord transmitted the following prayer:

If my life, Lord is to serve you always, without receiving anything in return, may Your Will be done, Jesus, because the greatest treasure I have is to be able to find You in the unconditional service to my dear brothers and sisters.

Lord,
do not allow me to become blinded blinded by my own miseries.
Help me, Jesus, to step out of myself, every day, so that I can discover and confirm that in sacrifice and the constant giving of my life lies the victorious path to surrender.

Jesus,
You are the Sun of our lives.
Dazzle the world with the rays of Your Mercy and, in this way, I will realize that everything You did for us is greater and more immense than all the renunciations that I must overcome and go through, day after day; because in the depths of each learning, my Jesus, there lies Your silent Will, which only aspires to make of me a kind, loving, helpful and good consciousness.

So I ask You, my Lord, that you not have me lose that you not have me lose the spiritual richness of each sacrifice and each test.
That I have the grace of being able to imitate You in compassionate love and in Mercy, because You are the Lord, without time, without rules nor conditions.

You, my Jesus, are everything for us, are everything for us, and someday I aspire to do the same for others.
May the path of fraternity teach me to detach from myself and, in the face of each new challenge, find the humble power that comes from You to break the chains of indifference and mediocrity.

Lord,
I ask You and I beg You:
just live within me.

Amen.
