4 May the Divine and Unfathomable Mercy of the Redeemer help you, at this moment, to stay in peace, in such a necessary and urgent peace for the inner worlds.

5 Eternal Star of God among all the stars that exist, manifest Your Project, Your Power, and Your Will on this so small and insignificant planet in the Eyes of the Universe.

6 Offer your prayer for those who do not pray, do not believe in God or pray to a false god and feed the reign of darkness with their ignorance.

7 Seek a union between your hearts and you will be prepared to receive the second coming of Christ.

8 My Hand will never let go, I will always try to take you to the Kingdom, so that you may be in the Arms of God.

9 Give yourself time and a place to silence your mind, emotions, words, and dive into your inner world as an observer.

10 Be merciful as I Am, and the planet will have more opportunities, more souls will be healed, and more hearts will become reconciled with the Living God.

11 Do not be afraid. I am here and I Am your Mother, the Mother of humanity and of all the peoples of the Earth.

12 Love will lead you to accept that which is unacceptable and everything that may be said to you, which to you may seem outside of the Purpose.

13 Learn to serve like the oceans: in a silent way, deeply, in a transparent, true way, without seeking anything in return.

14 I Am the Immaculate Heart of Peace and, through My Heart, I bring the Mercy of God to the world.

15 Love always positions you in the place where you should be so that in this sense you may learn to overcome your own disagreements.

16 In the face of confusion, chaos, evil, silence your own interior, plunge into the depths of consciousness, remember the oceans and then, children, be peace.

17 Under the maternal Light, I place those who cry for Me and ask for Mercy and, in this way, I liberate from the prisons those who pray with the heart.

18 With My maternal Light, I dissipate the harassment and dissolve the obstacles that the consciousnesses face from day to day.

19 Each test is full of uncertainties and challenges which, with intelligence rather than with guilt, you should learn to overcome.

20 Healing begins in consciousness, in the act of humbly stopping to listen to the Voice that speaks within your body.

21 May the Love of God always reign in you, may the Love of the Eternal Father impel you to live the challenges and to transcend the crucial tests of these times.

22 In the most difficult tests, resistances and aspects can be dissolved and become ashes.

23 Listen to your own consciousness; there you will begin to be healed. Go deeper and listen to your heart.

24 I am with those who pray, with every heart and soul that opens day by day to discover the mystery of praying with the heart.

25 Through your offerings of prayer, your aspirations are concretized because they will be filled with the love of the angels from Heaven.

26 Draw close to Me, to feel My Grace and the renewing faith that I can give to your soul.

27 Healing is being able to hear and follow that Voice that cries out within you. Therefore, listen to your Creator.

28 Raise your arms and you will find God. Experience Him in nature, in the silence of the heart, in the fervor of a sincere prayer.

29 Rest in Me while you need to and, in this time, open to perceive and recognize the lack of love that exists in people.
