1 In this new month that is starting, let us enter into the Nativity of the Lord, an important moment for the vows with the inner Christ of each being to be renewed.	2 Just love one another, as I loved you, as Father and Lord, from My Birth until My Ascension.	3 Today is a day to place your heart within the Sacred Heart of Our Lady of Guadalupe and learn with Her how to establish peace.	4 Dear children, whoever lives prayer in truth will have over their being the shield of My Mantle.	5 Pour your tears of light upon My chest, feel the supreme heat of My Compassion, let the past be flooded with healing and forgiveness.	6 The world churns and your heart churns with the world. For an instant, halt the flow of your thoughts and make your heart peaceful so that the world may become peaceful with you.	7 My beloveds, listen with attention to My words and know how to seek truth between the lines, which in other times I did not reveal to the world.
8 Take into your souls and upon your lips the power of the Word of Christ so that, announced to the world, the souls may awaken to the call of the Greater Universe.	9 Seek Me all the time, feel yourself observed, soul of Mine, by the sweet eyes of Your Beloved and Faithful Lord.	10 In a time of profound ignorance, indifference and inner confusion, be instruments and vehicles of Divine Wisdom for the Earth.	11 I invite you into constant communion with My Son so that in this cycle in this inner communion, the doors to sorrow and perdition become shut.	12 May you find an inner guide in the Star of Bethlehem, just as the Kings of the East did by contemplating the sacred Star of Bethlehem.	13 Allow for the Blood shed on the Cross to convert your most profound human condition and transform you into a being full of Mercy.	14 This is the time in which Jesus must reign in your hearts so that the promise of His return to the hearts of humankind may be fulfilled.
15 This is the time to find Jesus within you so that He may rule and reside in your deepest abodes.	16 Now open the shrine of your heart so that during this next Nativity of the Lord, I may enter and finally be a part of your small life.	17 Draw close to God in prayer, every day, so that your union with the Father does not remain at the same point but rather deepens.	18 The Eternal Father hopes to see Christ become born inside of you, so that a greater love than that which you experience today may awaken in the consciousness of humanity.	19 The Nativity is an inner opportunity for the renewal of vows with the inner Christ of each being.	20 Fill your heart with the essence of gratitude, because today and always this is the doorway to Heaven, the door for a new cycle, full of God.	21 It was the great star of Bethlehem that announced the arrival of the powerful Christic energy.
22 We are now close to Bethlehem and, in its interior, the sacred place is prepared for where the inner Christ will be again reborn.	23 On the eve of the Nativity, I want to tell you that, as from this moment, your hearts are prepared to receive the inner impulses that will come directly from My Heart.	24 Sacred Humility that comes from the Heart of God, allow me, now and always, to live you with perfection, as did the Lord.	25 Christ is reborn today in the hearts that say yes to Him and He will be reborn every day in those that open the doors of their inner being to Him.	26 Focus your attention on the rays of the Star of Bethlehem and upon all that it awakened in the depths of the inner levels of human beings.	27 If you cannot pray, then simply unite your heart to God and ask for His assistance. As a soldier of His army of love, the Lord will never deny the proper help to you.	28 Ask the Star of Bethlehem to guide you and to show you the path; because the Light is positioned to return to the world.
29 Where are the humble mangers so that Christ may be reborn? Did anyone remember to prepare it within their own spirits?	30 Leave the shrine of your heart open for Me, for I wish for us to be one so that, in perfect simplicity and love, we may be one in the Father.	31 Oh, memorable day, in which Heaven descends upon Earth to glorify the Mercy of God expressed in the Heart of His Holy Servant, the Virgin Mary.
