

Sunday, February 18 of 2018

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF LIMA, PERU, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Today I say goodbye to a land and a people marginalized and exploited, but profoundly blessed by God and by all of His Kingdom.

Today I say goodbye to simple but strong hearts, to souls who want to protect their roots and teachings so that these may serve as a spiritual support for the New Humanity.

Today I say goodbye to a devout but poor people, charitable but rejected in the world, because of its condition.

Today I am leaving happy, because new Suns awakened to the sacred knowledge of their mission and to prayer.

I carry in My Heart the warm expression of My children through songs and prayers; this will make Me return someday to bring continuity to the Work of Love and of Redemption of My Beloved Son.

Today I say goodbye to a people who was blessed by Grace and restored by the Mercy of God.

Today I say goodbye to the essences that awakened and to the hearts that, in profound humility, responded to the call of the Heavenly Mother.

I bless you all and I encourage you in the ministry of prayer and on the path of restorative service.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who blesses you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace.