DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDÚ, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Decree of Hope for the Heart of the Earth

Hear, O Heart of the Earth!
The cycle of definition of your destiny has come.
Walk towards your new name, towards the expression of your new life.

In this calvary that you are experiencing, carrying the cross of the end of times,
see your Heart become the stage of a battle,
fought since the origins of human life and therefore.
See that the time has come for this battle to end,
and prepare the hearts of your children
so that they may be triumphant in Love and in Truth.

O Heart of the Earth,
your new name is drawn like fire upon the horizon,
and nothing will be able to stop the triumph of your destiny.
Radiate the faith that is born in the center of your being toward each one of your children so that, through it, they may come to know Truth and Good.

Dissolve, little by little, the time that is around you,
like veils that cover your face,
hiding the Truth that exists beyond you.
Let your children gradually enter into the Time of God, into the Real time, so that they may recognize, not only the seriousness of these days,
but also the majesty of your purpose.

Let your children contemplate, not only the illusion
and the somnolence that absorbs beings,
but also let them know their origin and what caused them to come here,
to become human beings, hope of the Heart of God.

O Heart of the Earth,
that is in agony and has been saddened throughout this birthing of a child, which has been seemingly eternal and so much awaited for by all of Life.
Even though your contractions may be painful and your body may be tired, do not lose the hope of seeing the new human, the new life, born from you.

Behold, gradually the promise arises that the Creator made to you,

since the beginning of your existence and before;
this promise that was renewed over the course of human evolution, that triumphed on the Cross of the Savior and that must culminate with the cross of these times, the planetary cross.

Let the promises of God become alive,
and see the prophecies of the Armageddon come out of the sacred books.
But, beyond that, also see the sky open, and among the clouds, the choirs of angels preparing for the Return of the Living God to your embrace.

He will come with His Arms open to receive the children that were born of you,
and taking this new life into His Arms,
He will elevate the dimensions and soothe the pain.
He will bring His Kingdom to the world and you will no longer be called Earth, nor Jerusalem.
Your name will resound from the heights, that sacred sound, pronounced by God since the beginning.
And with that vibration upon you, you will no longer see pain, but rather peace.

In you, your children will grow and, for a thousand years,
they will strengthen Love within themselves,
until they are ready to allow Love to triumph in all life.

Remember My words, o Heart of the Earth, and remind your children that your story is already defined and that, in spite of all the challenges, they must never lose faith.

I leave the blessing of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit with you.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
