

Monday, January 20 of 2020

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Pray, child, and still adore God in the desert of your heart. Remember that withdrawing into the desert is to prepare you for meeting the Creator.

The desert is full of desolation, temptations and challenges; the desert is dry, empty and lonely. But it is this way so that you may move past all the limitations of your human weaknesses, purify the illusions and break the streams that, since the beginning of humanity, have been created to imprison the consciousness within a lie about the self.

Walk with firm steps through the desert of your heart and know that your goal is only one: meeting with your Creator.

In the desert, the Lord leads you to overcome the temptations that weaken your most human part: your cells, your bones, your mind, your emotions. But it is in the fortitude of this desert that your Creator will reveal the potential in you to transform the most impure conditions of a whole race.

Human beings, child, gradually discover themselves through surpassing, yielding and surrendering. And each desert crossed draws you closer to God and, in this way, draws you closer to yourselves, to what you really are.

Cross your inner deserts so that your soul may prepare for planetary deserts and, one day, child, your spirit will also be taken into a universal desert, a desert that will reveal the true meaning of human existence and this will not only bring humankind closer to the Heart of God, but all of creation.

I leave you My blessing and My peace so that, with them, you may take the necessary steps in this time.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph