APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, CORDOBA, ARGENTINA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN, DURING THE 16th MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

Prayer: Our Father (in Aramaic and in Spanish).

Today I come to speak to your hearts, a place where you will always find Me. There are many hearts that are wounded and hurt by different experiences in life.

In this hour of Mercy and Pity, My universal Sun comes to meet with you so as to be able to aid you and forgive you. And like this fount, this Water of Life that emerges under My feet, so is the spring of My Mercy for you.

You are in time, dear companions, to surrender to My Sacred Heart so that you may receive the gifts you need in these times. Do not delay, My companions, in taking the great step toward the universe. The Lord needs you to be firm so that He may accomplish His works in the end of times.

Today I come to wash your hearts with My Water of Life, I come to give you My Glorified Body so that you may eat of It and commune.

Do not waste time, My companions; rid yourselves of yourselves so that the Graces of God can inhabit your dwelling places and can be radiated to all.

While I am here with you today, sharing this priestly mystery, My Heart contemplates the whole world, the souls who need God, mainly those who become lost day after day and cannot find the path of My Mercy.

Like a great emanation of universal Light, My Countenance becomes present before you so that you may receive the luminous codes of My Heart and, definitively, be renewed and healed.

You are already crossing the threshold of purification. Many hearts suffer these consequences, but this had already been written since the beginning. It was already announced by My Glorified Heart when I was among you here in the world. Hold tight to My Hands and your hearts will be freed, will not suffer the purification so deeply, but rather will be washed by My Light and will receive My celestial Graces.

Console your hearts with My Presence. Receive, from My Mantle, the sacred protection you need. Open your hearts for the great change of the end of times. My Heart will guide you, It will accompany you.

I come in this time to be able to deeply give of Myself to you, but I also come in this cycle, in this period, to be able to free the world from all the impure spirits that deceive souls, that disturb hearts, and that divert the feet of all those that must walk toward the Celestial Kingdom. But this will end when your decision is deep and sincere.

I will show you the new path to be traveled in times of purification and tests. Do not remain in your purifications. Allow the Law of Divine Justice to be able to balance everything, within and outside of your beings. You will never be alone to be able to purify yourselves.

The Sacred Hearts gift Themselves, in these times, like the true balm of Love and Peace. And through these meetings I have with you, upon your lives and all your families, I pour out that which you truly need for these times, which I call "Grace of God," which will allow you to overcome the tests, free the paths, cut the ties and find the new shining hope on the horizon, so that all may find the true Paradise of God at the end of the path.

My silence today carries you into a preferred union with God, to a constant search for love.

Today My Heart visits each of you to teach you new things.

You will wash your heads and purify your feet of all stains, as I have taught you, so that you can be renewed and find unity with God, a unity that many are losing through being so indifferent to change, to the great transformation.

Let us repeat and pray with the heart.

Sacred Unity of God,

unify our lives,

unify our being,

unify us in profound fraternity.

Amen.

(repeated three times)

When you are separated and cannot be united, invoke the Sacred Unity of God, a blazing flame that is held in the Sacred Hearts. In this way, you will be completely helped by Me, by My Most Holy Mother, and by the Most Chaste Saint Joseph.

Be just in these times, so that you may be balanced in the end time. All together live in Sacred Unity, the Sacred spiritual Unity of God, the Divine Thought that unifies forms and all differences under one single redeeming purpose.

Seek the Sacred Unity of God. Nurture your lives through Unity, a flame of Grace and of Pity that will comfort you, that will not separate you, but rather unite you with My merciful Heart.

When you do this invocation, you will affirm that in your lives you are united with God and will not become separated from Him, in spite of what may happen in this world.

Seek the Sacred Unity and you will be in profound fraternity. In this way, you will be worthy of serving Me and will deserve the healing of God so as to achieve redemption.

Meditate on what I tell you. Aspire to live Sacred Unity.

Let us pray for all those who do not experience unity with God and for those who deteriorate the Divine Plan of God through their indifference and arrogance, and their pride which leads them into perdition.

When you cannot experience Sacred Unity, pay attention so as to invoke this prayer. You will be protected and safe so that your paths not deviate like a leaf blowing by.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Let us say the prayer all together three more times.

Christ requests, at this moment, that all the brothers and sisters that are connected in different parts of the world and in the Light-Communities bow down before Him to carry out this invocation:

*Sacred Unity of God,
unify our lives,
unify our being,
unify us in profound fraternity.
Amen.
(repeated three times)*

And that in the consolation that I pour out upon you today, your lives may achieve the original purity.

Receive My Graces, My Peace, and My blessing.

This is a special day so that your hearts, already strengthened by prayer, may find Me tomorrow at another point of consciousness, a great inner step that I invite you to take in trust and in peace.

Be purified, transmuted, and find freedom.

For this world that gathers you together and for all those who must awaken in time, I lovingly thank you for your faith.

Go in peace and be strengthened.

Under the spiritual blessing of God, be blessed and receive the Love of the Father and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Mother María Shimani de Montserrat:

We will fulfill a request that Our Lord made to us. He asked that we perform seven Baptisms and seven Foot-washings, and that we perform the baptisms here, in this bowl He consecrated.

What did He call the bowl, Friar?

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Bowl of the Sacred Heart.

Mother María Shimani de Montserrat:

Tell us, Friar, what it was that Our Lord told you.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Moments before the Apparition, we saw Christ, Jesus, having a meeting as if in another time.

He was celebrating the supper. He was washing the feet of some of us. He was calling Peter, from his home, so that he could follow Him and accompany Him to preach.

Afterwards, He consecrated this bowl and asked us to do the baptisms here, in the Marian Center of the Holy Spirit, where the first baptismal bowl was consecrated, the Bowl of the Sacred Heart.

Song: "Christ, Source and Spring of Life".
