APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS ??DURING THE 31st MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDÚ, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

I have seen many of those present in the desert of Shambhala responding once again to My Call, in the name of My Father who is in the Heavens and who brings them together in this Purpose of Love and for the redemption of humanity.

Today My Glorified Heart is illuminated on receiving the responses of souls that assembled around this oratory to pray to the Universal Father, to the Infinite, to the One. This is why today I stretch out My Arms to you, in a giving of self, I give you My Hands so that from the depths of My Spirit you may receive the rays of My paternal blessing, of My Merciful Love.

Today My Eyes cry not only because of the sadness of the world, for the suffering, for the chaos, for the human annihilation, but My Eyes also cry because My Spirit rejoices in the flocks that truly listen to Me and that, beyond their intentions and their tests, respond to the Shepherd who has assembled them in this desert of Shambhala to discover the inner purpose in each being, in each one of My children, of My companions.

It is thanks to everyone's efforts and to the reception you have given My Sacred Heart, that this work will expand even more. And that will require from all of you, companions, a heartfelt confidence in the projects of My Father and in the requests of the Divine Messengers, who intercede for you and for millions of souls in the world through this Universal Work. Because it is the Universe that congregates you, that unites you, that brings you together in the name of the Lord, the Almighty God.

And even in your weaknesses, My Spirit fills you, vivifies you, restores you so that you may continue onward.

If today, in this Sacred Center of Prayer, dedicated to the Sacred Hearts of Christ, of Mary and of Saint Joseph, there are more than five hundred souls assembled, how many souls do you think there are, at this moment, united with My Merciful Heart and through this meeting?

It is for this reason that I have asked you to come here. But I do not want the hearts that could not come to feel distressed, because if the praying hearts of the world are united with My Heart, they are also here. But those who had the Grace of coming to My meeting, to also receive My Graces, it is because the Universe is showing you that it is possible to give more of yourselves, and for each one to leave their own place. Because in truth, companions, you never lose anything, but rather you gain the treasures of Heaven, which are available for the hearts receptive to the call of the Son of God.

If I unite you all in Shambhala, it is to renew the original vows that you made to My Christic Spirit in Gethsemane, in the place of the flogging, at the gates of the sepulcher, or in the Ascension.

How many of you are resuming what you had left behind with Me?

And I lovingly bring you this memory, companions, because your spirits must actively participate in this co-redemptive work that prepares the return of Christ, your Lord, in this crucial time of the planet.

Thus, I have called you to Shambhala so that you could return to the heart of the Heart, to the essence of the true Essence, to the original principle, from yourselves to purity.

Today, the rays expanded by Me unite all of you with My Sacred Heart and in this way, I demonstrate to you that My Work is done in different ways and through different paths, when these obey the Law of the Lord and do not get involved with other things that are not the experiencing of the Sacred Heart of Jesus or of the Celestial Father Himself, who loves you and gathers you together again.

And thus, as you have responded to Me on this day of Mercy, in which the Infinite approaches humanity to remind it that it has to repent, let go of the reins and walk free on the pathway of redemption, I am calling on you to concretize My Works, to open your arms, to expand your hearts in the Love of My living Heart so that more souls may assemble. The souls that follow God through other paths, paths that are to be found in the spirit of all the beings where God dwells, where He gathers them all, without separation or differences, without creeds or religions, because the true religion is Love.

It is in Love that you must re-connect again and again in these end times, because it is the Love of God that will allow you to see things and to help those most in need in such difficult times. It is the Love that is also born of Shambhala and that assembles the self-summoned to respond to the Celestial Hierarchy.

This is the path that the Universal Hierarchy offers for all those who were once beginners and who are now disciples of My Mercy. It is this Mercy that I want to expand over the world through your hearts and through your living experience without fantasies or forms, without illusions or deceit.

I want you to definitely be rays of My Heart. I want you to decide upon a single path, which My Mother has offered you for so many years and many did not understand what it meant. And after all you have experienced through the times, your experiences and tests, you have opened your eyes to recognize that there had not been anything hidden in this, there was no mystery, no question, only the essence of the Love of the Sacred Hearts that entered the consciousness of your work at the request of the Almighty God, to change you into that which you still have not achieved: to be true apostles of My Heart.

And now, companions, in this desert of Shambhala, which is revealing many treasures to you, many signs of light for the soul and the spirit, do you now believe you are My apostles?

You are being formed by Myself for something definitive that is unknown to you. But as much as you do not understand, God will always show you His Truth in the small details.

If you believe that I am here present among you to love you again and again, believe that you are on the path which you were called to travel in this end time.

Through this inner retreat in Shambhala and through merciful prayer, hearts unite with My Spirit and the works manifest for all those who say "yes" to My sacred call.

While you are being purified, do not desist. My Feet will not fail to walk by your side. My Heart will illumine your paths and you will be able to see on the horizon the Star of God that is guiding you toward an encounter with the real refuge that emerges from My Unfathomable Heart.

I prepare you for carrying out a planetary work through humanitarian missions, for that is only a small sample of what the Plan can accomplish in these times. But more is still necessary.

Follow My Path with valor, because on this day I also prepare you so that you may meet Me in the Sacred Week in the month of March, because we will gather together again in this Marian Center of Aurora to take another step forward, in the absolute trust that with your willingness, inner and spiritual, you will be able to unite with the Universe and bring to Earth what He is giving to all through His celestial treasures.

My wish, companions, is that every day you raise your arms to Heaven, just as you have done today, to confirm My Mercy among you and in each part of the planet. Because in spite of wars continuing and massacres occurring without mercy or compassion in the hearts of unrighteous men and women, My Christic Spirit in each disciple will never die, because those who believe in Me have eternal life.

"Lord of the Universe, Father Abba, who rules all the worlds, dimensions and planes, who lives intensely as a spark of light in all spaces, who expresses in the most subtle forms, elements and vibrations, who unites, Father, with the spirits that invoke You, who makes Yourself present to assist Your children, who is reflected and shows Yourself in the elements, in the wind, in the water, in the fire, in the earth, and in life, whose Spirit fills all that was created in likeness of You; today I ask You, Father Abba, to piously help those who are self-summoned, for if from the beginning you called on them to live Your Work, I again offer You My Merciful and Glorified Heart so that You may redeem them.

Because just as the spear pierced My Heart to pour out Mercy, today I intercede for you, before your small heart, small human heart, small soul that must live its divinity and its ascension. I intercede before the Father Abba so that you may fulfill your part in this infinite Project of the Universe.

Listen, Father, to the crying of those who pronounce Your Words in daily prayers, listen to the voice of the hearts that feel the love of Your Spirit and of Your invisible Presence on all the planes. But distance them, Father, from the great adversary. Free souls through the prayers that Your children offer to Your Pure and Great Heart.

Do not look at the errors of the world. Let Your Heart not be wounded by the sins of humanity, but rather let It be restored through the prayerful balm of Your children, who in faithfulness and faith, aspire to follow Your Path.

Today I intercede between the Universe and the Earth, between the Cosmos and souls, asking, Beloved Father, that You give them the strength and conviction to live Your Plan, redemption to purify their spirits and a love so deep, divine and real, that it invades each part of their bodies and their cells, just as You, Father, have filled Me in the Resurrection.

Eternal Father, if You are glorified in Your Son, glorify Yourself, Father, in those that listen to You.

I offer You My Heart so that It may be the portal that leads hearts to the Purpose.

When all have finally awakened, I will be able to merge with Your Spirit, Beloved Father, and We will be one with Your children forever.

Amen.

I wait for you in the Sacred Week to experience a moment of renewal, because this is now the last time that I come to meet you before everything happens.
