Apparition of Christ Jesus during the 59th Marathon of Divine Mercy, in the Province of Algarve, Portugal, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

Silence.

When I am present everything must become quiet, for in this way, My spiritual Energy will enter into you and nothing will be wasted. On the contrary, the Power that My Father has given Me will act on the deepest levels of your consciousness, in the most central core of your being, where a New Humanity must be gestated.

The subtle vibrations that I bring you are precious. That is why they must be considered and appreciated, because it is an unquenchable balm for these times, a spiritual solution for many souls; I would say, a great table of salvation for humanity.

Therefore, everything that you receive is precious and must be greatly valued, so that all that I bring you may have its results within you and you do not have the need in the future of seeking a spiritual and supreme power in another place, that is not My Heart.

What I come to give to the world is something very great, before everything that happens in humanity and in this time. Everything that your Master and Lord does for humanity has great merit before the Celestial Father, because the Celestial Father Himself considers it and appreciates it, as all of you should consider it in each moment of your life.

Do not miss the opportunity of receiving this instruction with gratitude, because everything that I give you, I tell you again, is precious and will not be given again to the world.

You know it more than I; you feel it more than I, because you live here, in this world and within this humanity, that for many reasons has become perverted, losing the path of love, of unity, and of fraternity.

But I come to renew all the events that have taken place. Through My Divine Mercy I come to grant many Graces, not only to you, but also to the whole world.

Thus, your Master and Lord is personally calling all the sheep of the world, irrespective of your nation, your creed, or your race. I come to call all equally. I come to repopulate the Earth through souls with new codes of light.

I come to sow the Earth with new things, with Principles that come from the Celestial Universe and from the Supreme Source of My Father. For this, I need your lives to be receptacles of light and your hearts to be tabernacles of My Spirit, so that everything may be able to dwell within you, everything that comes from God and from His Source.

So I have begun here, on this pilgrimage through Portugal; so that the dogma of your faith may be strengthened and so that this faith, that I see in the hearts here, may be expanded in the world.

Everything that I bring you is renewing and sublime. Everything that I give you is unconditional. That is why it must be taken into account by the men and the women of the Earth, so that the treasures of Heaven, that come through My Heart, may be able to reside in more consciousnesses and above all, in the essences of the world that need to achieve redemption in this time.

I wish to reveal the true reality of My Father to you, His most urgent need for these times; but the world is not yet prepared to listen to Me openly.

Trust in what I tell you, for in this way you will be more worthy of My Divine Mercy.

While I am here, I am with all of Europe, expanding My Rays of Light over the world and especially in the nations that are most in need of reconsidering, waking up from the terrestrial illusion, and opening their eyes to the horizon, which shows the Infinity of God, the original Project that must descend to the Earth for this end time.

While I observe you, I also contemplate the world and I contemplate the need of all souls, the primary reason of each being and the urgency of each human heart. I contemplate all needs with love.

In the needs of each being God is also found, and He is present in everything. The Father knows what each being needs so that His Work may be expressed on the surface of the Earth.

That is why I am here with the Glory of My Sacred Heart, with the intention of transforming the world and the human consciousness.

I have started a pilgrimage through this place, because God has chosen it, not only because of its simplicity, but also for the strength of the spiritual dignity that can be awakened even more in the souls here.

Through the Sacrament of Communion, I bring you Heaven and all of the Universe; I bring you true life and a renewal; I bring you peace and union with My Spirit, so that you may continue to walk firmly on this path of the end of times; so that you continue to walk firmly on this path of tribulation that nobody has deeply known until now.

But by showing you the path, I show you the way out and the great encounter with the Kingdom of the Heavens, so that your consciousnesses can be divinized and sublimated, just as the father expects.

I have come on this afternoon to inwardly prepare everything that will happen afterwards in Europe and everything that will be able to be redeemed, step by step, as this pilgrimage takes place and the Will of God moves forward, as has been foreseen.

In this communion with Heaven and Earth, your consciousnesses receive My Grace, My Peace, and My Light, so that they may be magnetized by My Spirit, that only burns with love for the souls that surrender to Me in trust and in faith.

At this moment the Doors of the Heavens open and the Celestial Church approaches the intimacy of the souls, so that they may be filled by the Spirit of God, by His infinite Mercy.

That is why you are strengthened before Me, but you can also change. And this very deep and intimate change is granted by the Sacraments, that I will come to grant today to those who have sincerely asked for them. And I will retransmit the Grace of God through them and the atonement necessary for your lives.

Before the Celestial Church of the Father, may the offerings be received that will justify the errors of souls, so that the reconciliation of God can be given in all the spirits and in all the consciousnesses that most need it.

Let us then celebrate this sacramental moment, lifting up our intention to God, with the most sincere plea that what is written for Europe be fulfilled.

Incense.

Receive, Lord, the offerings of Your children, so that Your Celestial Kingdom may descend to Earth.

Receive, Lord, the offerings of Your children, so that Your Mercy may descend to Earth.

Father, through Me, wash Your children with the Fount of Your Grace. Amen.

Place Your Gifts over those who need to awaken to Your Divine Consciousness, and thus, find the Truth.

Two thousand years ago, I left you a most important treasure that changed the destiny of all of humanity and the planet. May that treasure still be recognized by humankind and for the times that will come, so that the souls always remember that I will be found alive and resplendent in the bread and in the wine transubstantiated by the sublime hands of the Angels of God.

Let us remember then, companions, the Sacrifice of the Lamb, for those who were sacrificed in the Americas, more than five hundred years ago and for those who submerged themselves in ignorance and ambition, losing the sense of the true reality; and above all, the expression of God in all its forms.

During a Thursday, before My Passion, I took the bread, gave thanks to God for the Sacrifice that He was offering Me; the Most Holy Trinity blessed it and I handed it to My apostles, saying to them: Eat all, of it, for this is My Body, which is surrendered for humankind, throughout the times, for the forgiveness of sins.

May the Most Holy Body of Christ be venerated in the manifestation of His Celestial Church in the souls of the Earth.

In the same way, supper having ended, I took the Chalice and gave thanks to God for the sacrifice that He was offering Me; the Most Holy Trinity blessed it and at that moment I handed it to My apostles, saying to them: Take and all drink of it, for this is the Chalice of My Blood, the Blood of the New Alliance, that will be spilled by the Divine Lamb for the forgiveness of sins.

Do this in remembrance of Me, until I return to the world for the second time.

Pai Nosso (in Portuguese)...

This is the Lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world.

*Lamb of God, that takes away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us. (x2)
Lamb of God, that takes away the sin of the world, give us peace.*

Praise be to God, for His Son has descended to the Earth in divinity, to fill the souls and unite them with God.

And before the agony in the Garden of Gethsemane occurred, and My apostles truly knew what would happen to Me, up to the top of Mount Calvary, I said to them, and in the inner planes I also said to the holy women: I give you My Peace and My Peace I give you. I do not look at your offenses, but rather your virtues, so that the virtues of God may shine on the surface of the Earth, through the service and the love of souls that experience the Charity of God.

My Peace I leave you and My Peace I give you; may My Peace in this time multiply through the hearts that live Me in the Sacraments.

May My Words resound in the simple hearts and may My Words of Light be able to sprout and give new fruit in those who most need it, and in those that follow My Path in total trust and dignity.

I bless you in the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Now give each other the greeting of peace, so that peace may be established in Europe and especially, in the Middle East.

I thank you.
