Apparition of the Glorified Christ Jesus, in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, for the 81st Marathon of the Divine Mercy

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

There is no evil that can prevail where I am present, because the triumph of My Heart is a reality in the hearts that open themselves to receive and adore Me. It is there where I place all the Codes and Principles of God for the souls, living in transformation, to reach redemption.

It is in the moment when this happens, when all the souls on Earth, regardless of where they find themselves, by means of this meeting with Me, receive the codes and merits of My Passion and, even more, receive the merits achieved by your Master in the universe, after the Ascension.

Today I come to speak to you from this place of the universe where I find Myself, a revelation that has not yet reached the human race because it is not written in the sacred book of the Bible.

You are in this time, as My servants and apostles, those who should continue with the history of your Master and Lord within the universe so that My Heavenly Church may be closer to the souls thirsty of God, and mainly to those that have not yet found the way out.

Just as you live here, upon the surface of Earth, under governments that are purely human, within the universe there exists a true spiritual Government that leads a great Confederation of consciousnesses that, in pure states of ascension and evolution, live as you do, in the material universe, but on other planes of consciousness, a reality and especially an existence with which this human civilization has very but very slowly made contact.

What is it that I want to tell you by saying this? That life does not end here nor does life starts here. The original life rises from the Universe, from the Source, and as the Source generated life through the Divine Will of the Father, the Eternal Father also decided that there would exist a Universal Government of which you are part, as well as many other consciousnesses that today you cannot see or perceive.

The spiritual Universe is more real than the material universe. Matter is corrupt and it dies, but it is a fundamental vehicle for science and the life of beings to experience that which each soul needs in order to learn and evolve.

This Spiritual Government that exists in the Universe is eternal, powerful and emblematic, because its main and primordial axis is love, which in other peripheries of the system of universal life fulfills all consciousnesses with wisdom and unity.

This Government was taken over by your Master and Lord after the Ascension, and it is from there where I will come to the world, it is from there where I will return to show My true Face, this Face that My apostles came to know, as I told you yesterday.

Through this Universal Government, not only the Laws can be experienced and fulfilled, but everything that is life and vibration is guided and conducted by this spiritual Government.

From this Government, Moses received the Commandments; by this Government, Abraham was inspired to protect his people; from this government, John the Baptist spoke, preached and taught men and women on Earth. And from this same spiritual Government of the Universe, I brought you the Gospel, the parables, for you to understand in a simpler form that which really exists in the universe and is latent.

Although this government still exists in the Universe, and while humanity still takes much time to enter the real system of the universal life to fulfill the laws and all that comes from this Government, I am preparing, in these final times, for all beings who say they live in Christ and for Christ to become conscious and knowledgeable of this powerful emanation of the Spiritual Government, which your Master and Lord leads and follows closely.

What I want to tell you is that this spiritual Government is the one that sent Me to the world, not only two thousand years ago, but it has also sent Me in this final time so that, through the Divinity and the Spirit of Christ, souls would have the Grace and the opportunity to find the path that many lost throughout recent times.

All consciousnesses of the Universe depend on this spiritual Government and you also depend on this spiritual Government. By not being under this government, humanity is suffering, because it loses the essence of what it really has to do and fulfill.

This spiritual Government inspired the appearance of this race. From the beginning of everything and until recently, this aspiration of the spiritual Government is latent. Now, at this time and at this moment, I call all hearts to enter with their consciousnesses into this spiritual Government that, from the beginning, has been following you and that recently, after 1950, has intervened in the humanity for it to not destroy itself once more as in Atlantis or in Lemuria. This way, the souls have the opportunity to free themselves from their debts and from the chain of addiction, of human errors.

Whoever has their consciousness in the spiritual Government, even without knowing it deeply, but if they enter in tune with It through their hearts and by means of prayer, this is considered by this spiritual Government, in this final moment, in all that this Government will do in the world, especially in the most difficult moment of humanity, a moment that has just begun.

I do not come to speak to you about something abstract, companions, today I come as the spokesman of this spiritual Government that leads this and other universes. It is a special space of the Consciousness of God, where Love is primordial to make big evolutionary decisions and important projects of life, throughout the whole universe.

As Abraham and Moses, this spiritual Government has been revealed to you and has come closer to you, to strengthen the Sacred Project of the people of Israel. Today, through your Master and Lord, Jesus Christ, through His Merciful and Glorified Heart, the souls have the essential and spiritual opportunity of being contemplated and considered by this Greater Government, so that not only each one of you may fulfill the mission that God has entrusted to you from the beginning of Creation, but also for you to unite yourselves, at that moment when the spiritual Government of the universe approaches Earth, to be able to assist and help it, at that crucial moment.

This is also one of the last impulses that I bring to you today.

In this spiritual Government there is also My Heavenly Mother and all the consciousnesses that follow Her, for Her to be able to go forward with her planetary task with each one of Her children, with each of the nations, with each of the peoples, with each heart that suffers for not being able to meet God.

It will be this spiritual Government that will intervene once more, on the planet and within humanity, as it has in other times, to try to correct and warn it about that which humanity really needs to fulfill and accomplish, in the name of God; and this goes beyond any religion or belief. It is a spiritual and cosmic situation that directly unites each one of you with the major Source of this spiritual Government.

On the inner planes of the planetary consciousness, in a place not very accessible for any human being, on the top of the Himalayas, the spiritual Government that I lead and conduct has a spiritual base on the planet, to closely lead humanity.

Consciousnesses of wisdom, love and of profound brotherhood gather together in this space, time and again, since 1950 to the present, to guide humanity in the inner planes, for humanity to recognize that it has not only lost its guide through the Law of God, but that it has also lost its inner contact with the Source.

Through the spiritual Government of the universe, today your Master and Lord once more reintegrates, into the depths of the essences, this necessary connection with the Eternal Father. This is not a Grace nor a merit, it is part of a great planetary need so that at least the majority of humanity can be saved and redeemed.

The pillars of knowledge of the truth and loyalty are the fundamental bases for the action of My spiritual Government, and circling these pillars are the great principles of love, wisdom and faith.

At this culminating time, this is possible for the souls who pray to the Source of My Divine Mercy, because most important, companions, is that which the souls need to receive within in order to be able to take forward their commitments with Me.

This spiritual Government will reveal itself to humanity in a form that nobody has ever seen, and the awakening will give an impulse to the human race once more, for it to recognize that which it still needs to experience and accomplish, at this time, for the new Christs to be able to awaken.

Today, under this Consciousness and Wisdom that guides you, you will once more offer Me your spiritual Communion so that I can work once again in humanity, in the place that needs assistance the most, not only spiritually, but also materially, and so, once more they will receive from me the codes of Light that they need to make their lives examples of My Work on Earth.

Before this Spiritual Government that is present through Christ, we are going to empty our beings completely, for the Christic impulses to fill our hearts and to renew the planetary life at this culminating moment of humanity.

Brothers, please, the table.

Through this Eucharistic celebration and through the spiritual Communion that at this moment the souls of the world will be able to experience, I will return to bring to Earth, through My Heart, the pillars of knowledge, wisdom and loyalty.

We invite you to stand up or to kneel at this moment.

"Father, You have sent Your Son for the souls to learn once more about love and forgiveness. Through the sacrifice lived by Your Son, give this planet and humanity the extraordinary Grace to again recover the meaning and the path of evolution so that, through knowledge, wisdom and loyalty, the souls may awaken to their mission and meaning and reason for having come here, to Earth, in Thy Name. Amen."

When I celebrated the Last Supper, the apostles came to know the spiritual Government through the Communion with Me. This evening was definitely not only for your Master, but also for all humanity through the presence of the apostles.

Today I come to perform the same exercise, with a more expansive consciousness present within everyone, for you not only to remember that I am present in the Body and in the Blood, by means of the bread and wine, but also that I am present in the universe, awaiting the great moment of My Return to humanity.

In this way, I took the bread, offered it to the Father for it to be transubstantiated and sanctified. Then I divided it and gave it to My apostles saying: "Take and eat, this is My Body that will be given to men and women for the forgiveness of sins."

We praise you, Lord, and we bless you.

We praise you, Lord, and we bless you.

We praise you, Lord, and we bless you.

Amen.

And the Light of knowledge, wisdom and loyalty entered the apostles, for them to be My representatives on the planet, up to today.

Afterward, I took the Chalice, the one that after My Ascension would then be taken to some other locations of the planet, for the triumph and victory of the Sacred Chalice of the Lord to be shed upon all humanity and on the generations to follow, with the objective and the purpose that, through the Chalice, the first religious order would be born in humanity, and from it many other orders would arise, which I would use to fulfill My Work upon the planet.

I elevated the Holy Chalice for it to be transubstantiated and sanctified. Then I offered it to the Apostles, saying: "Take and drink all of it, because this is the Chalice of My Blood, the Blood of the New Covenant, that will be shed by your Lord for the forgiveness of the faults. Do this in My memory.

We praise you, Lord, and we bless you.

We praise you, Lord, and we bless you.

We praise you, Lord, and we bless you.

Amen.

The Body and living Blood of Christ.

In union with the Spiritual Government of Our Lord Jesus Christ, let us pray the prayer that He taught us.

Our Father.

Our Father (let us repeat in English).

May the Peace, Love and Wisdom of Christ descend upon Earth.

Lord, I am not worthy of You entering under my roof, but only say the word and I shall be healed.

At this moment, united to all our brothers and sisters of the world, in their homes, nations and groups, let us receive the Sacrament of spiritual Communion and so, repair the Heart of God.

Let us hear three sounds of the bell.

The form of Light of Christ has entered the souls that opened themselves to commune with the Lord. Amen.

I leave you the Light of My spiritual Government for you to also commune with it, for more souls in the world to learn to experience the powerful love of the Law.

I deeply and internally thank all those who summoned themselves spontaneously to pray for My Divine Mercy, knowing that it is urgent and necessary to pray for the healing of humanity. But remember that, in the days to come and through the Powerful Novena to Saint Raphael the Archangel, the Creator Father will once again enter the planet and the consciousness of humanity in order to take forward the second phase of His spiritual mission.

Unite with Archangel Raphael in this sacred mission.

I bless you under the Light and Wisdom of the Spiritual Government of your Lord.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I thank you.
