APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN FATIMA, PORTUGAL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE FIRST DAY OF THE 110TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

After all has been purified, within and outside of creatures, this will be the moment when I will return to the world. I will come like the Light of this day, which embraces you today, emanating hundreds of rays in all directions of the planet and the universe.

Thus, you will see the Son of God come, just as it was written in the Gospels. Just as it has been announced throughout the times by some visionaries who are My favorite, and had the Grace of receiving the revelation of the Passion and Death of the Lord, but also had the Grace of receiving the revelation of the Return of Christ.

Today, in these times, despite the critical situation of the planet, also feel that you are a part of this revelation that your very Master and Lord announced to you in these recent times, through His Messages and His Words.

Thus, My Heart sometimes feels oppressed and sometimes enslaved, because I have entrusted everything to you, I have not kept anything to Myself, and although a part of My Consciousness is still a mystery for this universe and this Creation, in the end of times everything will become known. This is why My treasures are incalculable and My Graces are inexhaustible.

Just as I have entrusted to you My Being and My Divine Consciousness, I have also many times asked you to trust in Me. But although the human being is fragile and imperfect, you know that I have the power to transform everything and to make the life of each being a new instrument in the Hands of God.

My mystery will finish being revealed for those who continue to be faithful to Me on this path of challenges and tests that I offer to you, because, above all else, what is most important for your Master and Lord is that Christic Love may triumph.

The world was not created to be without Christic Love. For this reason, God Himself had to incarnate on Earth so that you might feel Him close throughout the times.

Without this proximity of God, which He Himself offered to live for the redemption of the whole human race, neither you nor your brothers and sisters would have the Grace of understanding and, above all, accepting Divine Will.

This is why that which is foreseen to happen through the Plan of God cannot be altered. Souls cannot alter the Plans of God, it would be like going against the Law and not accepting it, because what is foreseen for each one of your lives is incalculable and, I might even say, incomprehensible.

The Grace of God is so great, and His Mercy is so Infinite, that sometimes, My companions, you lose sight of them, and become confused by your own ideals or even by your own preferences.

What would have happened to Me if your Master and Lord, from the moment of His Incarnation up to His Death, had not accepted that which God had determined? What would have happened to this world? What would have happened to this humanity?

You must understand, once and for all, that your lives are called to live Christic Love and to be converted into New Christs so that you may give continuity to My Work of Mercy, which all of humanity needs at this hour of uncertainty and lack of peace.

For this reason, I come today as this Sun of God, which represents life, regeneration and healing for the entire planet and the universe. I come as this powerful and eternal Light that can liberate you and transmute you from your errors and tests.

But this last and great step will depend only upon you, companions, and, in the silence of My Heart and in My prayer, I hope you can take this step.

There are still many chains to be broken. There are still many ties to liberate. There are still many hearts to rebuild, because trust has been outraged by all that happens in the world.

And although God, your Eternal Father, contemplates all that is done to this planet and this humanity, He does not move away. He draws near, He makes Himself felt and known, through the eternal persistence of His Beloved Son, to those who, in spite of the obscurity of the world, are brave and continue to take steps toward the Light, toward this Sun of the Universe, which embraces you and welcomes you into the Love of God.

In this way, I prepare you to live more determining and mature situations, experiences that will allow you to realize whether you are with Me or not, whether your hearts are ready or not.

But once again, I tell you not to lose heart, and that you must be brave. The Light of My Rays penetrate the wounded Earth and the sick humanity to heal them.

This is why I Am this inexhaustible and unchangeable Sun that is always born again. As this Sun, I Am born again to give Life to those who belong to Me and to give them Love in My sacred retreat.

The signs of these times demonstrate to all that it is time to live this sacred call with seriousness and reverence, because it will not repeat again, it will not be heard again. In the purification of the Earth, all will be concluded and the planet will be put in order again, therefore its surface must be regenerated so as to be within the fulfillment of the Project of God.

However, all this will be possible if you are truly here with Me. Even with all your defects, you must allow My Love to reach all and the inner life of human beings to someday become sacred and solemn, so that the fruits of conversion and redemption of the world may be presented at the Feet of the Creator, Adonai.

Do not seek answers where you will not find them, listen to your hearts and do not become confused. My enemy has many strategies, he is quite crafty and daring.

But the one who is with Me, in unity and reverence, will not perish, because My Love is like a very thin dome of Light that protects and safeguards you, when you simply do not allow yourselves to come out of My Heart for other preferences and desires.

When you decide to live the codes of evolutionary life, you will learn to live the Commandments. Therefore, do not forget that you are a part of the sacred people of Israel, which must continue to walk in this planetary desert of indifference and deafness. The sacred people that must find the Promised Land through Me.

I aspire that many can do so and that many can concretize the meeting with this sacred spiritual land, which is a part of the Kingdom of the Heavens.

On this afternoon, when My Divine and Unfathomable Mercy, through the Sun, continues to shine toward the world, do not forget that I Am that I Am, and that My Eucharist is a living and resplendent Body of Light, which transmutes and liberates everything, in those who accept it humbly and wholeheartedly.

Within them, I will always manage to write the continuity of My Story, which is the Story of God, through His Will and His burning Aspiration that the Father may have a share with you and that you may have a share with the Father, through Me, your Lord and Master of the Universe.

And, once again, I give you Peace, so that the world may be worthy of peace, so that this peace, which is so necessary and urgent, may be established on the surface of the Earth.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
