SPECIAL MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESUS, FOR THE 111th MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

God bless you, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I did not expect to be here right now, but it has been necessary.

My Heart is where it is invoked. My Name is where it is called, to remind you once again that I am with you and, being with you, I am with this nation of Brazil, praying and working silently, just as I did in the Passion, therefore nobody should think that I am not doing anything.

The signs from Heaven are internal, they are inextinguishable impulses that reach souls that are open of heart to accompany all that the Hierarchy carries out.

However, My attention is not only in this country, but in all that is happening throughout the world today. There are worse situations that happen on this planet, which many do not know of because they are situations that are hidden from the eyes of humanity, so that humanity does nothing about them.

But My Heavenly Father sees everything, through the Heart of His Son. Thus, He sends His Son into the world to prepare hearts for His long-awaited Return.

Therefore, I tell you, in truth, that all you experience in this time is not by chance; that if many of you are incarnated at this time, it is for a spiritual reason unknown to many.

Thus, I tell you not to dwell on superficial things. Do not remain in that which is superficial, in everything that is insensitive, devoid of love and truth.

Place your consciousnesses in the right place and you will help the Hierarchies; for this is the last boat that is passing through the world, the boat of salvation through My Word and My Message, through the visible sign that I leave to open hearts that, beyond themselves and all circumstances, are able to perceive the true task of their Lord.

But I left you an important Legacy for these end times, the Legacy of the Holy Eucharist, something that you must be very attentive to when you live it and practice it, because I see that the Eucharistic Celebration throughout the world is becoming transient.

And this is the great moment for each one of you to deepen and live the merits of My Holy Passion, that is, to live every moment of Communion as something unique and true, that your thirst for Me not be sentimental, but deeply spiritual.

Because in the face of all the mistakes that humanity is experiencing today, have you wondered how these mistakes will be corrected? Will your Master have to return to bear the Cross?

Therefore, I need of the new Christs, of those who are far from mediocrity and neglect, of those who do not cool their hearts and become doubtful in the face of any attack, but through the strength that I have given you through My Heart, know how to overcome your own limitations and all the barriers that are imposed by the system of this world, without challenging or battling.

Thus, I ask you to rethink your spiritual exercise of Communion with Me, because only through the souls who live Me and feel Me can I pour out My Graces upon the world, for those who value the Eucharist and the Sacraments.

Therefore, each of the Sacraments that I have left for you is sacred and not fleeting. For through the Sacraments which I have left to the world is the one true way of redemption; just as is the way open to peace, through all who worship Me on the Most Holy Altar.

I ask all My children of Brazil not to seek the solution of this country outside of you. Look for that answer which is within you, in your inner world, and rethink all that I am telling you right now. Thus, many will be able to perceive how, in an ignorant way or due to a lack of knowledge, souls often waste the Grace of God.

The world is burning with suffering. Wars challenge the migration of peoples and of many nations. Blood continues to be shed without any price and the cry of the Earth is heard more and more loudly through the phenomena of the climate, the expression of all nature.

Who will stand firm to hold this moment with Me?

Who will not sway before the temptations and challenges of the world?

I know that souls are fragile, but spirits can be strong and invincible, and ready to live that which has to be lived, without anything in return, without acknowledgments, without vainglory.

When souls perceive through this Message, and when the hearts feel the value of the Sacraments that I have left them, then there will still be a little time, the little time that remains for the world so that, through the souls that live My Word and My Sacraments, I can justify the errors of the world that cannot be paid, before the Law.

Therefore, if souls are conscious and generate merit, not only will they be saved, but also many more souls will be saved, especially those who in life are burning in the fire of hell due to their links with evil.

But do not forget that I come here as the Redeemer of the world, and extending once more My Arms over Brazil, I come to bless that which is most sacred to exist in this place, which are the souls that live God with joy and who faithfully follow My footsteps with effort, beyond their imperfections, beyond all that is unknown to them.

I need to establish here My Spiritual Government for the coming times. South America should be that support for the rest of the world in the times of greatest tribulation. But that does not mean, My friends, that you do not experience afflictions, for as long as you are in this world, you will experience them.

Who is truly with Me learns to overcome within themselves the Law of suffering, learns to transcend themselves, every day a little more, even while taking very small or slow steps.

The most important thing, companions, is the effort and the impetus, fundamental pillars of the determination to be the example that My Father so much expects you to be, for these times where darkness, pride and evil, the children of indifference and ingratitude, reign.

But you have the Grace to be able to change these events with your honest path of holiness, day by day, effort by effort, so that one day, without being noticed, you will be that Mirror of God on the surface of the Earth. The faithful example of a redemption achieved and lived. Therefore, there is still much to work and build.

Your Master and Lord is preparing for an important task in the Middle East. It will be the most important of all tasks in recent times. I hope you, in spirit and in heart, can accompany Me, so that once again not only you, but also your brothers and sisters of the world, may receive the Christic codes and the merits achieved by your Lord throughout His experience on this planet.

This Marathon of Divine Mercy will be important for those who will sincerely become self-summoned and spiritually receive the impetus they need to complete being formed as My apostle.

I need to see this as real. I need to see My apostles on the surface of the Earth, just as I have many other apostles throughout the world who live and serve Me, and that their life is only here to repair the Heart of the Lord.

Who else will postulate themselves to live this moment, to be where I need them, as I need them and when I need them?

I have to tell you all this so that you can grow quickly; for I know that you can respond Me, just as you have responded to Me in these recent years.

I want to thank you for your courage to listen to My Words, and for this, I again bless you and give you My Peace so that within you everything is always renewed and thus you may participate in the Holy Will of the Creator, of what He has preciously kept within His Heart, for each of His children.

Be brave and do not be discouraged!

Live your purification as a liberation, as the end of the spiritual bondage of this world.

My Graces are upon those who would like to receive them.

May peace be with you as My Peace resounds throughout this universe, through those who say yes to Me.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
