APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN LAVALLEJA, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE FIRST DAY OF THE 121st MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Your prayers, songs and mantras rise to the Heavens, just as these trees that embrace you rise to the Heavens to incessantly seek the Light of God.

How beautiful it is to see this happening to My companions, before a very divided and martyred world, before the loneliness that abounds in many hearts, before those who have lost hope!

From this sacred enclosure, may the Light of Aurora emerge and, through your hearts and souls, may this Light expand to the whole world today, because you will find Me here, in this simple but sacred place, I might even say, an imperceptible place.

How many wonderful things all of humanity could live, just as you consciously live today!

I Am here to succor inner worlds and all those who, for some reason, have lost hope and the will to live.

I Am here and Am your Master, the Master of always, the Galilean, the One Who walked by the side of all those in need, Who visited the homes of the simple, just as I visit you today.

I Am the One Who healed and cured the deepest wounds through the offering of My Sorrowful Passion.

Each blow I received was for you. Each whipping I felt was for you. Each drop of Blood that I shed was for you. Each pain I felt in My Being during Calvary was for you, for the redemption of the world.

And in this way, I fulfilled the Will of My Father, just as today you have the bliss of fulfilling the Will of My Father for this end time unknown to most. But if your souls have chosen My Way, what are you afraid of? Advance and no longer step backward.

From My Heart, I give you the same I gave My apostles when I sent them to all the corners of the Earth to preach the Message of the Lord.

Today I send you as My bearers of peace, the peace that is so much needed by the world and humanity, the peace that disappears from the surface of the Earth day by day, the peace that disappears from the inner worlds of many souls in the world.

Today, My friends and companions, I present My thirst to you again, My spiritual thirst, a deeper thirst than the one I felt on the top of the Cross and in the last minutes of My Life, before I finished suffering for you and humanity.

This is why this sensible response of the consistent ones rejoices My Heart, in the face of so many outrages and grievances in the world; because in truth I tell you that many are the souls that are suffering in this time. Many.

May your lives be a pillar of My Love on this surface. Regardless of your imperfections and even your uncertainties, may the faith of the Lord sustain you, strengthen and impel you to always aspire to fulfill the Will of My Father, which is also My Will.

This is why today, in a special way, Aurora reflects itself upon the surface of humanity as a Mirror, on which all can see themselves reflected by means of the essence of life and that which is real for your inner worlds.

The aridity of this humanity lies in the emptiness and dryness of inner worlds, which many are experiencing in this time for not trusting My Mercy. But you, who already know My Mercy, may you decide to be merciful to yourselves and to all those who surround you, without refusing assistance to those who need it, without failing to succor those who ask you, without failing to tend to those who need it, those who knock on your door. Because love must reign at this moment so that darkness may be dissipated from the world and souls.

I come to close a cycle with you, and thus begin a new stage that prepares the Return of the Lord. But I will only be able to return, companions, when you are ready and decided.

I Am not speaking of forcing a commitment, I Am speaking of your being My instruments in the world, the instruments I need to act and work miracles, although this may seem impossible to you, nothing is impossible for the Lord.

Today, you receive Me here, in this Sacred Woods of the OmbuTrees, just as My apostles and followers received Me many times in the Holy Land. And from here, I help My Holy Land, wounded and martyred by war and by the lives of all the innocent who have died without justice or mercy.

Do you now understand how far I want to go, companions?

What I need is very simple, I need is your truth, your unconditionality and faith to help all those who suffer at this moment, to aid all those who emigrate without any future, to places where all doors are closed to them, instead of being opened to give them an opportunity, as it is the case of many immigrating families.

I walk by the side of each one of them, just as I walk by your side, companions. My Heart offers itself once again for you, as the refuge for your despair and agony, as the portal of peace for all the hearts and lives that trust in Me.

Be brave, and prepare yourselves for the new challenges. I will always be there to sustain you on this path of the unknown planetary transition.

But the day and hour will come when you will see Me coming amid the clouds, and some will meet Me face to face, in a place similar to this, as it was in the garden with the holy women, who ardently watched in prayer for the Resurrection of the Lord and did not doubt.

Although everything was seemingly a defeat, the triumph of My Love in the world and in souls took place through the solemn silence and acceptance of the chalice of agony in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Today, here in this place of Uruguay, I feel as if I were in the Garden of Gethsemane. However, not in a garden of agony but rather in a garden of consolation and strength from all My companions. The strength that the presence of My Mystical Body in the world gives Me, which is formed through all the souls that live for Christ and in Christ.

Continue like this and do not give up, strong times will come soon. Take My Mantle when you need it, hold My Hand when you need it, feel the beating of My Heart when you need it, and everything will be alright, because the Love of God will always triumph over all evil and adversity.

Be firm, decided and open-hearted so that I can guide you as I have always guided you up until now in the silence of My spiritual paternity and My celestial friendship.

May your hearts be bearers of My Grace and Mercy, for a world that agonizes, losing its own light and peace.

May the eternal Light of Aurora illuminate all spaces, dimensions and planes so that the Solar Son may be recognized in His Return to Earth. Because just as I ascended to the Heavens, from the Heavens I will descend.

Just as God, through His angels, revealed Me in the Garden of Gethsemane the wonders of My companions up to the end of times, in the same way I will marvel at meeting you face to face and being able to see, through your eyes, in a loving gaze, the fruits of the redemption of your lives.

I once again thank you for accompanying Me in solemnity, reverence and gratitude, for all those who need help.

I thank you.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
