

Friday, January 29 of 2016

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF LOS COCOS, CÓRDOBA, ARGENTINA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

While the world begins to become aware of the need for service and Argentina takes the first steps in the active balancing of its debts with God, I call on you so that you do not stop taking your steps. May each mission be a doorway that is opened to a greater possibility of redemption in the world.

My missionaries in Chaco are beginning to become aware of the spiritual task that they carry out and their hearts can now feel the Purpose of God a little more.

The suffering of the indigenous consciousness is being alleviated, but as I have told you, this is a door that was opened so that you may continue on a long journey of reparation and redemption.

For Argentina to become a nation able to be the cradle of the New Humanity, just like Brazil, Uruguay, and other countries of South America, there must exist a greater spirit of love and fraternity.

With small acts of service, the consciousness is expanded to know the truth, which is the presence of God within all living creatures. Service, children, dignifies the spirit and activates love, latent in the human heart. For this reason, now that you have taken the first steps with greater awareness, I will ask you to not stop.

The missionaries will feel in their hearts the need for this service to have some continuity, and I tell you that this feeling is true. I would like other members of this Work to have the opportunity to contribute their love into acts of fraternal charity, but for that, I need the inner and material willingness of all.

As the spiritual maladjustment is gradually balanced and transmuted in Chaco through the simple and sincere actions of servers, the paths will open in the matter and you will find those intercessors sent by God that will help you to provide a more materially dignified life to the peoples of Chaco.

But before that, you must still make a great effort so that love is able to dissolve the sorrow that has impregnated the indigenous consciousness for so many centuries.

My children, the world is in its last breaths of suffering, and the Justice of God will soon descend to the Earth. That is not a threat, it is a reality. For this reason, the most important now is to learn to truly love, to break your own structures of pride, egoism and indifference, so that, still in the time of His Mercy, the Lord may grant you the Grace of dwelling in your inner worlds and strengthen you for the rebuilding of the material and spiritual life of the Earth.

I love you and, for this reason, I impel you so that you do not stop your steps now. Deepen into the spirit of service and, at the end of this mission, I will tell you what I most want for Argentina and for South America. I await you to be attentive and open-hearted to listen to Me.

Your Father and Instructor,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph