DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS???

When a soul prays from the heart, it creates the conditions for the approach of the spirit. When such a spirit is awake, this allows higher laws to permeate matter and guide the events of life according to the divine and universal principles that correspond to the Will of God.

It is only when a being opens to spiritual life and awakens faith in that which they cannot see with their physical eyes that all the realities of the Cosmos can be felt within their heart.

It is when a soul awakens that their personality may feel the imperative need of discovering what is beyond material life. The soul is what causes the mind and the emotions to not feel satisfied with life on the surface and thus direct the three-dimensional bodies to a higher quest.

While you learn and grow in spirit, the soul struggles constantly with the human aspects that are still deeply rooted in the ways of planetary material life. It is for this reason that, at the same time that you aspire to launch yourselves into the abyss of the Will of God and to surrender yourselves to the mystery that is living under that Will, another part of your being doubts the existence of that abyss, of this possibility of living the Will of God and, according to your own resistances, you may even doubt Divine Existence.

It is when the spirit approaches matter that the soul is strengthened and its convictions become the truth that rule life. Doubts and questionings will not cease to exist because while you are in the world there will always be an aspect to be purified; an aspect that does not want to sacrifice itself and prefers to remain in the ordinary life of gratifications and worldly pleasures. But it will resemble an adult that lives like a child and complains, sometimes more, sometimes less, demanding attention for their will to be done.

Why do I tell you this?

Because you need to stop giving so much attention to this child inside of you who does not want to grow, you must start to act with the consciousness of the spirit, with this spiritual adult that understands the planetary reality and that is willing to live according to higher designs, regardless of circumstances.

Many times the inner child is disguised as a great hero because they are totally willing to change the world, as long as they feature great roles in the end of times; but when one speaks of transformation in the little things of life, they do not give it so much importance and think, for example, "Why would I accept humiliations, live in obedience, silence and sacrifice, when I can do great service in Africa?"

My beloveds, know that I speak to your hearts, but today, I speak, above all, to your consciousnesses, because the time has already come for you to understand that the only way out, so that humanity does not become a dead project in the memory of the Creation, is that everyone may assume their own transformation and live the Principles of God within themselves, placing within the human consciousness the codes of a redeemed race.

If you do not rediscover the life of the spirit and let yourselves be transformed by the power of prayer, you will never discover that the salvation and redemption of the souls of the whole world depend on each one of you.

Again, I tell you, allow the priority of your lives to be prayer for the planet, service and the love that transforms everything.

I love you and guide you in the little details in order for your consciousnesses to awaken to higher life.

Pray and transform yourselves. Imitate Christ. Follow His steps every day. The world needs it.

Your Beloved Father and Companion,

Saint Joseph
