DAILY MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN TAHLEQUAH, OKLAHOMA, UNITED STATES, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Fiery Bases of a Community and Group Life - Part I

There are ethical and, above all, spiritual principles in order for the bases of a community and group life to be able to be supported innerly and materially, and, thus, the risks of opposition and desertion, which make it difficult to sustain the fundamental principle of a community, may be avoided.

In order for the thread of the spiritual and inner light, which essentially nourishes the souls that make up a Community, to be kept stable and without oscillations, it is necessary to fulfill and live some requirements so that this group life may always be inclined to the service of the renewal of its consciousness, which unites all its members in common unity.

For this:

- criteria
- common sense
- absence of personal ideas
- balance
- harmony
- internal and external ethics
- solidarity
- unconditional service
- dynamism
- neutrality
- compassion
- a sense of reference
- the Law of the Hierarchy
- understanding
- universal ecumenism
- detachment

are facets and paths that will reflect the point and inner state in which the group life is to be found so as to be able to maintain and fulfill the aspirations of the Above.

To maintain and carry forward a community is not just something material, and the daily effort that this implies is mainly to not lose the meaning of the purpose and the perspective for which it was formed, especially when the Community or Communities had been given impulse to by the Hierarchy Itself.

The reference of the community is the bridge that unites that which is inner with that which is spiritual, the material plane with the immaterial plane. If that support were to become lost or fade with time, the proposal for the group or community life would become distorted and without guidance.

Therefore, everything must be turned towards the practice of the guidelines that are adopted in order to live and carry forward not only with formality and rhythm but also the purpose of renewal and of always being renewed, so that the group cycles may show the need of the times and the next step to be taken.

I thank you for keeping My Words in your hearts!

Who blesses you,

Your Master and Lord, Christ Jesus
