DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

The eyes that open themselves through prayer see with understanding and with wisdom because whoever perseveres by means of My Heart will walk in faith for all of eternity.

My dears,

May united in My Spirit your hearts radiate all the good and the loving that they live. In this way this light will be able to reach the world that urgently needs it to quench the thirst for love and for peace.

I conduct you towards My Kingdom. May no one lose the inner strength to follow Me and to unite themselves to My Redeeming Path.

Dears, I Am by your side to accompany you through this pathway that must be guided by the wisdom of My Heart.

Companions, follow the path traced for your conversion and redemption. Now all of the souls are called to recognize My Blessed Heart. I need true servers that may transmit My Only and True Message through the wise examples of life and by means of the important source that service represents for all of My Servers.

Dears, I prepare you day by day for something greater, something that you still do not know but that you will soon know when you only pray and vigil with Me.

Dears, take a moment so that My Presence may be among you because soon the Shepherd will come to dine at your table and He will call at the door of your heart.

Wait for Me with ardent love and devotion.

Under the Love of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for receiving My words in the heart!

Christ Jesus, the Redeemer.
