DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

To maintain balance in times of transition, My children, your consciousnesses must embrace from now on the love for selfless service and constant self-giving. It is this determination to serve, unconditionally, that will renew you in body and spirit, and allow you to remain supported by Divine Grace.

The search to serve and help others will make your consciousnesses attract from the Heart of God His wisdom and discernment, His healing, His Love and His Peace, even in the most adverse situations.

This will be so, children, because God will give you the tools you need to fulfill the mission that your souls have committed to live.

So that you do not become unbalanced, go mad or become saddened when you find no other support other than what lies only within God, you must now begin to love service, love helping others, love fulfilling the Plan of God, love being available, love being in the Creator and not in yourselves, because this is how you will be able to overcome, not only the tests that will come, but you will also allow the Love of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit to be renewed and to overcome within you.

You have My blessing for this.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
