

Saturday, July 21 of 2012

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Dear children,

Praised be Jesus in your hearts and in the hearts of all of My children in the world!

My little children, today I call you to practice the humility of the heart, the humility that may be exercised through daily prayer and which will bring you to find the peace and the meekness that is necessary to live in the end of this present time.

Therefore, united to My Immaculate Heart, you will be able to find the Light of My Son for the path that I invite you to go through from now on: the path of humility. A humble heart is a meek heart, open and receptive to all the requests of service and of giving that may come into its life.

Live by the examples that the little Jesus once manifested in each one of His passages here on Earth. Today I invite you to remember, My little ones, the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem; the presentation to the Father, of the child Jesus in My arms, as well as the finding of Jesus in the temple.

Dear children, I want to train you on the path of humility, and that each one of these living examples that Jesus transmitted to all of humanity may be a valuable spiritual instrument of conversion.

Dear children, you know that humanity is still not humble before God. This is why He sends Me to you through Jesus so that you may remember that the moment to renounce oneself, to transcend oneself and to find the true Kingdom of God has now arrived.

I welcome you all in My arms of motherhood.

Know, My children, that My Immaculate Heart was consecrated to God by all of you. Therefore I love you and I guide you towards the new time of Eternal Peace, Peace that the world must live to be able to be in the Eternal Kingdom of God.

In Jesus, praised be the King of the Universe!

Thank you for responding to My call.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity