

Tuesday, June 25 of 2013

MESSAGE OF THE APPARITION OF THE MOST HOLY QUEEN OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF MANANTIALES, MALDONADO, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA

My little children,

With the rosary in My hands, I pray, bead by bead, for all of humanity, untiringly, so that My very little children can mature to perceive the Presence of God before their lives.

I see that the world forgets, day by day, this God who permanently observes you and awaits, with eternal Mercy and Love, for His creation to finally turn its eyes and hearts to the Heights and return to the Celestial Home.

I speak today to all the hearts of the world, as the appeal of a Mother who seeks Her children so as to bring them, one by one, to Her Heart.

My dear ones, the reason for My Presence in this time is only to bring Peace, Peace which My Heart has radiated for so many centuries to the world, trying to penetrate the hearts of those who do not listen to Me.

My call to a life of prayer has a spiritual reason, to awaken to divine life those who only submerge themselves in material life.

My dear ones, I come from the Heavens to alert you that the world is much more than what your little eyes can see, and life is something much larger and more sacred than what your little consciousnesses can conceive.

My Heart will never tire of alerting the world to awaken, because ignorance grows within the hearts of men, and today, darkness appears to have more space than the Light.

Those who can hear My voice today must respond to My call for all those who do not listen to Me, because many are aware of My Presence but few trust in My Words, because they fear the Love of My Heart, for not knowing the infinite greatness of this Love and the power of transformation that it brings to their lives.

Those who listen to Me and follow Me with love must be persevering, because the dragon pursues the Woman clothed with the Sun and tries to remove the children from Her arms. But if your hearts hold tightly to My Heart, through daily prayer, done with absolute love, I will be able to hold you tightly; I will cover My little children with My mantle of protection and even if the tests come, I will not permit you to fall from My arms.

I only want you to understand that those who really listen to Me must do a lot more than what they do today; they must give of themselves more than they give today, through prayer, service, love, fasting, and fraternity, as an offering of their hearts to balance the world.

The hearts of My soldiers must live to balance the faults of humanity, which wounds the Heart of God and of His Son, which forgets the divine life and completely ignores the universal life.

I know that the tests are coming for many of My children, and today I only say to you that the time of My reign is near; but in this period, your hearts must live the transcendence of all limits and faithfully persevere in the prayer of the heart.

Live peace, fight against the resistance of your own hearts so that peace may reign in the world again. Do not only listen to My call, but live in the purest love that is kept within your hearts.

My feet walk next to yours, to guide you in eternal and profound love.

Persevere, persevere, persevere always in My Heart.

I love you and will always love you.

Mary, Mother and Queen of Peace