WEEKLY MESSAGE, TRANSMITTED BY THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY TO MOTHER SHIMANI

My beloved children of Argentina and of the whole world:

My tears turn into flowers when I listen to you praying with the heart:

My tears turn into pearls that I offer to our Lord when My children, in unity and fraternity, pray with peace in the heart.

Today I have listened the pleas of My children that, despite their suffering are willing to answer to My call and to pray for their brothers and sisters.

One day My Son told you that while you were in this world, living the things of the world, you would have affliction. We have also told you, He and I, that there is a place, outside of this world, where you would always be in peace and would find comfort. This place is Our Heart.

There, beloved children, you will always be under protection and love and you will need nothing else. There you will be able to be in this world without feeling its affliction and to belong to the King of the Universe and to the Queen of the Heaven and the Earth.

In this day in which I pour My Grace and My Blessed Love over this city, I prepare all of the consciousnesses that in the coming days will receive Me through one of My children of Medjugorje.

There you will understand, dear children, that your Mother is only one and that in this time She transmits to you Her voice of love and conversion through many children, instruments of God.

The One and Only Father observes each movement of His servers and consecrates to His Heart everyone who has the courage of surrendering their will to Him.

In them He will deposit His Infinite Mercy so that in each act of love, service and prayer, His Beloved Servers may take this Mercy to those who suffer in forgetfulness and who ignore the Creator God.

I want to ask to all of the groups of prayer of this city and of this whole Nation that, each time with more consciousness, you may unite your hearts with Mine and with the heart of the Redeemer.

In this way We, the Messengers, will be able to intercede before God, the All Powerful, so that the Divine Justice may encounter you firm and strong and that it may be only a movement that may correct whatever does not comply with the Law.

Beloved children: I want to thank you one more time for all that you do for Me.

Who eternally loves you and protects you.

Mary, Queen of Peace.
