

Wednesday, February 25 of 2015

MESSAGE FOR THE APPARITION AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF THE CHILD KING, TRANSMITTED BY MARY, LADY OF THE POOR AND QUEEN OF PEACE TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

I Am the Lady of the Poor, but not only of the poor in matter. I Am the Mother of the poor of spirit, of the poor of heart. I Am the Mother of those who lack love and peace, of those who lack fraternity in their homes and in their lives.

In this way, children of Mine, I come to demonstrate to you that true wealth does not come from this world and it will not be found in it, until you may be able to discover the most pure font from where all things come.

I Am the Lady of the Heavens, recognized by the angels and archangels; by the saints and the blessed ones; by God and by His Son; and nonetheless, I come to the world as the Lady of the Poor so that you may get to know that it is not with material wealth that a soul is ennobled. The greatness of a soul is expressed in its pure union with its Creator, that is the true King of all things, and that reigns in all of the spaces.

I want you to know that of no value are the riches of this world, if poor is the heart. The one who owns the most riches is the one who knows that must give and donate the most to others; not only that which one possesses, but also oneself. That is because, I say to you on this day, there is no greater greatness and glory than divesting oneself of all that comes from this world, including of one's own self, in order to find all of the celestial goods.

Dear children, the one who gives it all will always receive from the Lord the assistance in order to continue on the path of evolution; they will lack nothing. Although God may permit that you may learn by means of difficulties that must forge your spirit, He will never let this spirit perish, and the flame in your heart to be extinguished.

I Am the Lady of the Poor, but also the Queen of Peace, because the greatest treasure that I bring to the world is the Peace which the hearts are lacking. Embrace this treasure that I bring to you as something unique for humanity and multiply it by means of your prayers and of the surrendering of your lives.

My beloved, never forget that the key to opening all the doors; to understanding and knowing all things, is the prayer made with the heart. For this, I invite you today to consecrate your lives to this infinite font of Peace and of Redemption that is the true prayer.

I leave on this day My blessing for this Marian Center that grows as it learns with the difficulties of life.

I ask to all those who consecrate themselves as My children, as a symbol of their willingness of consecrating their lives to God, that they may never permit that a true channel of prayer may not be formed here. This Marian Center belongs to your souls and to the whole world and it must be constantly generating light and love for the Earth by means of your prayers.

For this, I ask you all to not cease to come to this place and to placing here a brick of prayer, so that may be constructed the great stronghold which this Marian Center needs in order to keep fulfilling the mission that God has entrusted it.

I wait for you in prayer and in faith, generating Peace and Redemption for the world.

I count on the answer of your hearts.

Mary, Lady of the Poor and Queen of Peace