

Friday, November 25 of 2016

APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN MEXICO CITY, MEXICO, TO THE VISIONARIES FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS AND SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús transmits the Words of the Virgin Mary:

Although it does not seem so, I come surrounded by the stars of the flag of the United States to change them into stars of My universal Mantle. This means, dear children, that the task has not yet been finalized, that the fulfilment of this task that I am carrying out, together with My Son and Saint Joseph, is part of your hearts.

If your Mother of Heaven can convert impossible things, you shall be able to help Me, dear children, even though it may seem impossible, for this Sacred Mission to be carried out, just as God has asked of Me, from the depths of His Heart.

You will understand, dear children, after everything has passed, the things that I will try to avert.

Today, dear children, I bring you the consciousness of the confraternity and the Love that makes all of you participants in a perfect communion with My beloved Son.

I come surrounded by the stars of the flag of the United States, just as I came surrounded by the stars to Guadalupe, to show the world that in higher life lies the doorway to liberation and peace.

I know there are many of you, dear children, who do not yet understand this celestial mystery, but when your hearts open to be mirrors of My prayer, you will be able to simply penetrate this mystery; and in this way, you will concretize everything that I ask of you in a humble and serving way.

Today, I am between the United States and Mexico, placing My Rays over each nation, uniting the consciousnesses of the nations so that they shall not be separated from the Purpose of God, for it was in this way that I announced it to Juan Diego in Guadalupe, that humanity must unite in spite of your cultures and races in order to achieve peace.

In this definitive time, dear children, in which the planet is mobilizing and suffers the consequences of the surface, I invite you to experience cooperation, brotherhood and love above all that you know and have learned.

Thus, you will also penetrate My Immaculate Heart not only with your prayers and voices, but with the intention of serving a Greater Plan that is still unknown to all of humanity.

Thus, dear children, My beloved children, I bring you an awareness of the true purpose for these times, uniting as a single brotherhood, so that the events of the planetary transition may be experienced in the greatest peace possible.

My wish, dear children, is that you transmit this impulse I bring you today to all your brothers and sisters, even those who do not want to listen to God nor My Heart. Trust that though the power of your simple words, you will be able to sow the seeds of Light in all those who most need this.

I tell you again, dear children, that on this special night, in which My Heart is venerated and loved by all of you with an intimate and spiritual joy, I am over the United States and Mexico to heal the wounds experienced between these peoples; to allow the true principle of each nation to be reborn, of serving God in these times through your Guardian Angels and the Angels of the Nations, ardently waiting to unite with each of you.

It is thus that, from the heights of Tepeyac, as well as from the heights of Mount Shasta, your Heavenly Mother will announce the word of salvation and will bring to all of California and the United States the hope that have lost, because of all that you have been living through in recent times.

With all the strength of My Love, I will go to withdraw the fear from Latin American hearts, those who have been immigrants, looking for a hope of life and an opportunity.

All I wish, dear children, is that between the United States and Mexico a profound fellowship be established so that the walls, which you think to build between the nations, no longer be ideas in human thought nor in the spiritual plan. If that comes to pass, dear children of Mexico, do not reject the test you will experience.

Love more and more the Will that God places in your nations and hearts, for in this way, you will be on the correct path and any social war will be avoided.

I would not want to return to Mexico in such a crucial hour, as it was with the Aztec civilization and the European community, in which I came to announce the profound act of reconciliation and of peace between the peoples.

Your Heavenly Mother does not want to see blood running in the streets nor does She want to see hearts suffering the incomprehension of the decisions that the rulers take in this world, which affect the whole of humanity, the whole planet.

I do not come to set you against anybody; I come to ask, dear children, that you deeply love your enemies, for they have need of the Grace of God, which must be born from your hearts, so that they may have an opportunity, just as you have had in these times.

I tell you again, dear children, that I am surrounded with the stars of the flag of the United States, so as to be able to change the souls who do not listen to God and that, in a profound lethargy, submerge daily in material life, without seeking the essence of spirit, the essence that unites them with God all the time.

Sister Lucía de Jesús transmits the Words of the Virgin Mary:

On this evening, I would like you to understand My Words with the heart; that you do not see a nation by its culture or its past; but rather, that you see, children, each soul that dwells there, that has such need of My maternal Presence, because they ignore Me, do not know My Divinity, do not recognize My Love. And in this time, it will be paramount for souls to be able to find in My Immaculate Heart the refuge and hope of seeing peace being born in this world.

Today I come surrounded by the stars of the flag of the United States, not to be consequent with what happens there, but to tell you, children, that at this moment, that nation has much need of My help. It needs the liberation that God grants His Servant to realize in the world; just as I have been carrying it out every day that I have been here, together with Christ and with Saint Joseph; because your hearts opened the door to Me, and many of your brothers and sisters that do not know you, who have never heard of you, helped Me to get here today; they withdrew assets that belonged to them, from their homes, generating merits for the salvation of their souls.

This was a learning experience, children, that I need to offer to many nations, because as much as you do not understand, when you strive from the heart to generate merits for the liberation of others, you are beginning to enter into the Principle of God for humanity; you are allowing Christic life to descend to the human consciousness, because My Son did not measure efforts to rescue those whom He did not know, irrespective of their religion, their nation, the people they belonged to or the customs they lived by, whether saints or worldly.

Because all of humanity, children, need the Presence of God; need to discover the hidden God existing within; because the time has come for the Creator to be able to express through His creatures. And it is in the small things of your lives, in the small acts done out of love, that this God manifests.

Today, feel My Peace, My motherhood and how I shelter you in My arms.

Feel that your pleas have been done, that your song has become life, because My lips open to speak Divine Words to you, because My arms are extended to welcome you and bring you to My Heart.

Today, I not only give you a kiss, but I also carry you to Heaven, so that you may ardently aspire that all of humanity be able to live this divine instance.

Today I invite you, children, to be peacemakers of My beloved Son, to follow His example, Who when He was rejected, humiliated, scourged, never closed His Heart. On the contrary, His Mercy was poured out in the last drop of His Blood. He gave everything out of love for the Plan of God, and that is what I come to ask each one of you, that little by little, for more than a day, you begin, children, to surrender all that you are to the Father. I will not ask you to die on the cross, but rather that you surrender your lives out of love, that each day you be more sincere in your love for others, for the Kingdoms of Nature and for God.

Today, children, the Creator makes the ground of this world tremble to warn souls that it is time to look to Heaven, and no longer to the things of the Earth. But even so, many do not listen and need to suffer a lot in order to realize that it is time to turn back to God.

For this reason, just as today I open My arms to you, I ask that you open your arms to those who are blind up to the last hour and who will have need of your love and your understanding to be able to begin their life again.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús transmits the Words of the Virgin Mary:

It is through this profound act of love, in this stage that you have offered Me, in honor of My Immaculate Heart and the triumph of the Plan of the Celestial Father, that I come to consecrate you as I have waited for so long, listening to your prayers one by one, seeing the beads of each prayer pass in your hands and the hours of the clock so that I could return to My beloved Mexico.

Here I am, dear children, to bless you in honour of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, that through this Most Holy Trinity all these things may be allowed, that I may pour My Graces upon My children so that, in the time to come, they may be fruit in the hearts and in the lives of all beings.

I want you to gift Me, dear children, the song that you have done for Me, now at the end, for in this way, I will consecrate you.

I come to accomplish what has been written in these letters, in each paragraph of the song.

I come to look upon you, to open My arms to you, so that peace may be established.

Come here, dear children, those who will be consecrated today in the name of all the Mexicans who live in love for the beloved Guadalupana, Who never abandons you, Who always guides you, Who will always protect you in love and in goodness.

May this consecration today be significant in your lives. This is the moment, dear children, for forgiveness and for reconciliation with the European consciousness. On the other side of the world, in Europe, I ask My children to prostrate themselves on the ground to establish this reconciliation between Mexico and Europe, between the original peoples and the European consciousness, so that a definite healing may be established of the great wound caused throughout time and centuries.

That here it may be possible to establish, dear children, in My maternal Presence, a unity among consciousnesses and hearts.

Today, I again unite what surface humankind has separated. I come to unite you under a single consciousness, as a single race, which lives of the Love of God and professes its faith in the Most High.

I listen to you through this beautiful song, which is a song of love for God, through His Holy Celestial Mother, the Virgin of Guadalupe.

I consecrate you, I vivify you in My Son, I heal you in spirit, in soul and in divinity, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

And now that you are My children consecrated to My Immaculate Heart, offer forgiveness and reconciliation among the peoples and the nations. So be it.

Let us pray a Hail Mary together before the song.

I listen to your sweet voice.

Prayer: Hail Mary and Glory Be.