SPECIAL MESSAGE OF MARY, UNIVERSAL MOTHER, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO MOTHER MARÍA SHIMANI DE MONTSERRAT

The descent of the Celestial Kingdom

My beloveds,

Today I fulfill the promise that I made to your hearts, and I again descend to this world with all My Celestial and Universal Consciousness, entering into one of My Homes on Earth, to bring the Celestial Kingdom.

This Kingdom belongs to all My faithful children, who gather at the Feet of the Eternal Father and at the Feet of My Son the Redeemer, who from the heart are able to live in fidelity to the Love of God, the transparency of that love, the inner freedom of having chosen with the heart to follow the path of the good, of fraternity and of the Mercy that Christ brought to this humanity.

This Celestial Church, which is formed by all the sincere hearts in their love for God, makes no distinction of race, people, religion nor dogmas. It is formed by all who seek the good, light, love and a fraternal life for themselves, for their brothers and sisters of the whole world; who seek respect, consideration and the recognition of all the Kingdoms of Nature, as a precious and fundamental part of life on this planet, the fruits of the Divine Creation of the Father.

This Celestial Church that My Son has assembled as an offering to the Eternal Father today descends and unites with Me, with My Immaculate Heart, so that in this way, I am able to care for, protect, guide and lead it until My Son returns to the world, the only King, the Savior.

As from this new cycle on, My children, everything will be exposed in order to be purified. Nothing will remain hidden from the eyes of humankind, nothing will be held back any longer.

Those who define themselves for the good will have to struggle, every day, to allow their lives to move onto the path that will lead them toward the Love of God, and they will do this with joy, knowing that the thousand years of peace are arriving; they will strive and prepare the Return of Christ with small and large actions. All will see them and know who they are.

Those who deceive themselves and choose to support the false powers of this world will no longer be hidden and they will be seen by all throughout the whole world. They will mock the sincere hearts that seek the good, and their infidelity will be seen and heard by all. They will persecute the good hearts and want to destroy the Celestial Church due to not being able to take it over. But you should fear nothing, because I will be with you and in you, and nothing will be able to make you suffer.

I will keep the true Church of My Son until He returns, placing under My Mantle of protection those who are pure and simple of heart, the faithful and the truthful, the just and obedient to the Laws of Heaven, the charitable and the generous with their peers and with the Kingdoms, the brave who seek love above the pettiness of this world, those who suffer because of the malice of the cruel and the sinners, and the innocent, those who nobody can protect.

And in this way, the Celestial Church of My Son will grow, nation by nation, region by region, continent after continent in this world, and nothing will stop it, because the real love, the real light and the real peace will come to each thirsty soul of this Earth.

Remember that it is My Son Who calls souls within the inner worlds, and it is also My maternal Love that gathers you together to take you to Christ, beyond any action on the surface of the Earth.

Thus, things will happen that you will not be able to understand when the children of the Celestial Church begin to assemble, and from the furthest places of the world, they cry out for the Love of their Heavenly Mother and for their Lord, and when they begin to come to the spaces where the Divine Messengers will descend to bring peace.

The great miracles of light, healing and conversion will begin to manifest throughout the world, because souls will ignite, wherever they may be, responding to the call of their Shepherd.

Evil will want to confuse you, but the redeeming Love of Christ is powerful and unmistakable, and nothing will stop It.

Get ready, beloved children, to travel with Me to those lost places of the world in search of your brothers and sisters, so that they may definitely be a part of this, our Celestial Church.

And so, in this cycle beginning today, the 144,000 will awaken and nothing will stop this. That task that they will accomplish, of preparing the Return of Christ, belongs to each soul committed to the advent of a New Humanity, to each one of those who hear My words with their ears or in their inner worlds.

And it will no longer be only 144,000; there will be many more who, with an ardent love ignited for My Son in their hearts, will walk at His side to live, together with Him, the love and the fraternity that this race was always destined to live.

My beloveds, today My Heart is rejoicing and I come to you as the bride that comes to the altar, to begin the most important stage of her life, a stage in which she will definitely form the great family, the Universal Family, who will fervently wait for the arrival of Her King, the Glorified Christ Jesus.

Today, I descend here, and also upon the surface of the desert of Peru, where within the inner worlds of the planet, the Masters and Ancients of other times and of forever who take care of this world. This is where the White Brotherhood has faithfully followed the Plan of God for this world.

They have unconditionally been united with the Eternal Father and with all His Designs, being the bridge between the Cosmic Universe and the Earth since before Adam and Eve, a task that God gave them and, in spite of all errors, My children of the surface, He allowed us today to still have this blessed planet for taking forward the divine Project.

For this reason, I have also descended into the desert of Chilca, in the same way that My Son descended some years ago, to also bring the Celestial Church to that location, because all of them, as silent lovers of My Son, belong to this gathering of consciousnesses that, from the inner planes, help us to sustain and preserve this beloved planet.

My beloveds, today I lovingly invite you, as Mother, to take a step with your spirits and souls, to enter together with Me into the school of the real knowledge about this civilization, which is you and this planet, a knowledge that belongs to you and that has been hidden from everybody's consciousnesses.

Now that you are maturing, now that you are reaching spiritual maturity, it is your responsibility to experience the great truths with openness while also holding the hand of your Heavenly Mother, Who will lead you along these new paths with love, taking care of each one of your souls.

This new cycle will be full of revelations that will make you strong and allow you to understand many things that formerly were called "mysteries," because the time to know about them had still not yet come for all.

My beloveds, today My Heart is rejoicing and I come to you as the bride that comes to the altar, to begin the most important stage of her life, a stage in which she will definitely form the great family, the Universal Family, who will fervently wait for the arrival of Her King, the Glorified Christ Jesus.

I love you, and I bless you on this unforgettable day of rejoicing.

Thank you for accompanying Me today, for being a part of this celestial victory.

Your Mother Mary, the Universal Mother
