

Tuesday, July 25 of 2017

Apparition of the Virgin Mary in Fatima, Portugal, to the visionaries Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón and Sister Lucía de Jesús

To Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Today I come from heaven as the Lady of the Apocalypse, to decree through My words that the final time is approaching, and, with it, once again, the end of a cycle, in which humanity must be even more awakened in order to be able to perceive the changes that will not only come to the planetary consciousness, but also to planetary life.

I am the Lady of the Apocalypse, I am the one who precedes the end of the Omega because, from then on, everything will happen, and nothing will be hidden any longer.

Therefore, you must be prepared for this moment, with a different attitude, starting from your consciousness because, thus, this attitude will be reflected in the material life, and you will know how to act with discernment and caution at the moment of making decisions and of carrying forward My Son's Plan.

Do not fear if you see the forces of chaos moving around you, acting or intervening, it is a sign that the end is coming and that your neutrality will be important so that, without indifference, you can do what you need to do.

This moment marks an unexpected time for everyone. Humanity has never gone through this transition, nor does it know what it is all about.

That is why I come to announce, as the Lady of the Apocalypse, that all My children must be awakened in this crucial hour so that, together with their guardian angels, they can cross these deserts that approach the planetary Consciousness, in which the Mercy of God will be very necessary.

No longer fear what moves within or outside of you, for that which is impure, imperfect, or unfaithful.

Hold on to My Solar Mantle. I will lift you up from the ground so that you may walk together with your Mother of the Apocalypse, towards the closing of a stage that has just begun.

In the meantime, maintain a spirit of hope, and project to the future everything good that may happen when many more souls are redeemed in Christ and find the meaning of their lives to cease being spiritually blind and imprisoned in souls.

I need you to sustain this Scepter that I am delivering to you today: the Scepter of God, which will move all things on this planet, before My beloved Son, the Christ, returns.

For this reason, the apostles cannot be distracted, perturbed, nor alarmed by what happens around them.

In these times you must maintain a spirit of faith, trust and love to overcome the tests that will come.

I know you have asked yourselves inwardly, why does God allow certain things, to the point that souls must suffer and go through hard tests?

It is not God who causes chaos, but humanity who is indifferent and separated from love.

You, who have already known how to reach the Source, must reach this Source every day because otherwise your spirits will dry up and will not be nourished by the water of life that My Son represents in His Divinity.

I need you to be brave and still sustain with one hand the banner of My Peace, and with the other hand, the redemptive sword of Christ; because we still have to continue fighting for a Plan that, in many minds, no longer makes sense.

If My Son had not allowed Himself to be defeated, although it seemed it had been so, His Love would not have triumphed.

His surrender, His unconditionality and His Love defeated the enemy, and the Plan won, and the light triumphed over all darkness.

Open your inner eyes, and feel deep within your hearts that you are going through the most crucial moment of the Passion that the planetary consciousness is living, which is agonizing as it feels that its creatures still do not live change.

Therefore, the currents of the Universe are acting and some arrive physically in certain places to move the state of resistance and lack of change that some souls live.

Do not think you are being punished or that the judgment of the Divinity has already come because it has not yet approached the world.

Chaos fights against chaos, evil swallows itself by fighting, battling and debating, to see who is in first place.

Do not allow these times to torment you, do not stop looking at the Sun that you truly are because it will be necessary that it shines in these times of purification and tests.

I come to prepare the path for the arrival of My Son, for the moment in which everything will be allowed.

Truly, happy will be those who, in total confidence, place themselves under My Mantle so that your Universal Mother may be able to protect you.

And now see, through those who live in these times, that it is necessary to make inner changes.

Do not be surprised by what you see within you and around you; it is time for everything to be erased in order for the Project of Christ to be fulfilled in humanity and the new flocks may congregate toward the New Supper that the Lord will celebrate.

I am the Lady of the Apocalypse, and today I come as Mother and Priestess of the souls who reflect the Love of God with their prayers, and, holding hands, together with Me, in a Sacred Oratory, proclaim the Victory of Christ and His return to the world for these times that will come.

May your lips never get tired of proclaiming faith, may your path be full of graces and may your inner senses open to be able to receive the reality that afflicts the world and submerges it in deep pain.

Do not fear, no longer fear, for I am your Mother, I am here: this is the moment that you confirm your trust in My Immaculate Heart.

When the waters of the seas are turbulent, it is the sign that all must be united, under the same purpose. And it is this purpose and this end that will protect you, because the purpose must always be love, service and surrender so that many more may benefit from this.

Today I have between My hands the book of the Apocalypse, and your Heavenly Mother reads the revelations that are found in it and that humanity has still not known, which are the revelations written by the words of John.

They are the signs that he has seen a long time ago, which are manifesting in humanity at this time, so that, finally, a change may emerge and everyone can reach the Source and commune with God.

Feel that these scriptures are projecting themselves in humanity and that the dragon of fire is coming out of its abyss. This indicates that Christ is returning, although it does not seem so.

And right away you will see Saint Gabriel the Archangel opening the last seal of the seven that exist, to show the world that this last phase of redemption is approaching and that everything that is in the abyss will be placed in judgment, before the Creator. In the meantime, keep in permanent neutrality and invoke the power of Love so that you may know how to assist your fellow beings.

While this last seal is opened, do not stop praying, not even for a moment. The time has come for your thoughts to be elevated in a continuous and constant way. The time has come for your feelings, thoughts and actions to be pure prayer because in this way you will always be protected by the Mantle of your Heavenly Mother.

If some things happen around you today, remember that behind everything, there exists a purpose.

Embrace the change and these things will end, suffering will be dissolved out of nowhere, it will strengthen the fortress, the wisdom and hope that many need, and they will be able to walk free from their ties and chains. Their feet will reach the top of the mountain, where Christ will rest His Feet as Solar Light, to declare to the world that He has come to put an end to everything that has been destroyed.

And His archangels will raise the chalices to God, offering this new sacrifice for humanity.

Those who have been martyrs, lambs, who have been exiled from their country, or their mission, will be recognized.

Christ Jesus, through His Heart, will deliver His great Star to the world to sow on Earth the new principles of Light, the crystals of redemption that will sustain the new race in the emergence of a New Humanity. For all of this to be fulfilled, you must pass through this cycle, dear children.

When the wolf wants to hunt the sheep of the Shepard, it is a sign that the Redeemer is coming with firm and silent steps to the world to defeat his enemy and to dissolve him in the Source of Love.

May your eyes not stop looking to heaven and implore with prayers.

May your acts be truthful and not stingy.

May your feeling be evermore to love, to love, and to love, until your beings surrender in Christic energy.

And so, those who have come from the Universe, sent by the Lords of the Law, will finally be redeemed, they will hand over their helmets, swords and stars at the feet of the Christ, and it will not be necessary to fight to conquer the Truth and the Love of the Source, because your Lord, the Master among masters, will liberate you from the past, and your essences will light up when you recognize the Presence of the Christ.

This is everything that is in the Book of the Apocalypse, something that John has not written, even though he has seen it, because it was not the moment for humanity to know it.

But now I, who am your Prophetess and Priestess, at the eternal service of My Beloved Son, come to announce the new times, the new goals and the new principles so that souls may hold on to them and may not let themselves be taken by tribulation, because Saint Michael will return.

Archangel Saint Michael will return in his state of resplendence so that, with his sword of Justice and Light, He will exorcise what has caused pain and suffering in humanity, and the illusions of the world will be dissolved, the souls will feel an unknown Christic love and, finally, the Suns on Earth will shine, to be a part, together with this world, of the Universal Confraternity.

To Sister Lucía de Jesús:

Everything that I reveal to you on this day is part of the Celestial, Divine Will, of the One who sent Me to the world.

I come with the book of the Apocalypse, My children, to strengthen the faith and hope in your hearts because the world is purifying and it will still purify more intensely, and all My children will have to live this purification.

However, My words will resound within you as a fortress and hope, which will be on the horizon of your lives, as something that will be fulfilled, a Truth which will be manifested after chaos and evil emerge in this world with all their false power.

Today, I come to teach you to not observe the events of the world only with human eyes, but that the eyes of your spirits and your hearts may be open to understand the events and make others understand that the Justice of God is not a punishment, that the purification of the planet is not the end of humanity, but rather the end of human degeneration.

It is the beginning of a new cycle, of a new era, in which indifference and the lack of love can no longer exist in the consciousnesses. And those who cannot live the Law, manifest it and express it in their lives, will be led to other worlds, to other spaces, where they will be able to learn, according to their consciousness and their choices on this Earth.

Everything will be directed to where it should be. Nothing will remain out of place, because the Law of God will come to straighten the paths of humanity so that they may find the path of return.

When chaos and evil emerge before your eyes, remember My words, remember your mission and your purpose on this Earth. Because what I have built within you will be transformed into tools so that you can act in these times. Tools that express themselves through peace, neutrality, compassion and mercy for those who are lost and distant from God.

Strengthen, My Children, everything that I gave you. Discover within you these tools of Light that are expressed through virtues so that, at the correct moment, you may know how to find them within you.

Today you will think that your transformation is rigorous and that the changes are intense for the consciousness to accompany the cycle of the planet; but you will soon understand that all that God asks you has a principle and a higher purpose, which you will see manifested when the time comes in which My Son will find you prepared, ready to unite to Him, so that He may have companions with whom He can count on when He arrives in the world.

His Resplendence will be absolute, and His Brightness will be visible to all human eyes.

However, many children of Mine will fear to look at Him, follow Him and receive Him in this world, because they will not feel worthy of receiving His Forgiveness, because they will see their mistakes emerge and the consequences of their indifference.

This is why, today I ask you, committed with the Superior Plan, to prepare your hearts and strengthen them, not only to cross the times of greater tribulation but so that you have the courage and humility to look at the Eyes of Christ when His Feet tread the Earth.

May you have the humility to receive His forgiveness and to be filled by His Mercy so that He may definitely transform you and show you your true face, that which you are, as part of the Divine Will, My children, in a way that a molecule of Christ Consciousness may enter within you and make you participants of a new time, of a new race that will be built with effort, with renunciation and with a deep love that does not come from this Earth, but from the most intimate part of the Heart of God.

Today I want to renew all My children, all the Children of Mary, so that they never fear to wear My Mantle, so that they give testimony of My Presence. May they never deny that they are consecrated to My Immaculate Heart, may they conquer fear with the potency of love and give testimony of the transformation that prayer has made in their lives.

With this, children, I leave you a warning, but also a Grace, so that you may persevere and be worthy of seeing each one of My words fulfilled.

Transmitted to Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Plea of the Sacred Mother and Lady of the Apocalypse to the Heavenly Father

Listen, Lord, to the voice of Your Servant and Slave, who lovingly wants to intercede for all Your most lost children.

Listen to the voice of those who cry out for an opportunity and who, in these times, receive nothing in their inner worlds.

I come to offer Myself as a Sun to illuminate the abysses and to raise Your fallen stars to the Celestial Universe.

I pour out My Rays of Grace upon the world so that souls may capture My deepest feelings of love and motherhood.

Lord, today I place in My arms those who most need You.

Today I contemplate, through My eyes,
the inner wounds of all My children,
and with the caress that I give them with My Hands,
I calm and soothe everything that disturbs and brings tribulation.

Through My embrace, I place them close to My chest
so that they may feel the warmth of a good and humble Mother, so that they may feel Her Immaculate Heart beat infinitely, just as the whole Universe vibrates, in its creation and existence.

Today I dissolve bitterness from the hearts and I establish My Peace in those who have asked for it with so much fervor and prayer.

I build the foundations of a new life,
I bring to this civilization the opportunity to love,
until all feel as one,
and Christ finds them in eternal communion.

Amen.