Daily Message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted during the journey from the city of São Paulo to the Marian Center of Figueira, Brazil to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Dear children,

Until the end of days, I will be with you, until My Son arrives in His Glory, when He will bring the Kingdom of God with all His splendor and Mercy.

I will be here until the end of days, until I see the birth of the New Humanity, which will have a new consciousness and will, finally, make of this planet a sacred place.

Until the end of days, I will be with you, so that My children will be guided and no one will disperse or remove you from the true path of light.

This is My spiritual promise for all those who follow Me and make of this promise their own aspiration. For whoever calls upon Me will be heard by Me and will have a response. Whoever pleads will be filled with an unknown Grace.

I will be with you until the end of days, until My eyes see the birth of the inner Christ and He is present and mature in the essence of each one of My children.

After it all, I will return to the Glory of the Father so that, together with the angels, we may exalt the Father with praise for the fulfilment of the birth of the New Christs.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who blesses you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
