APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

What are you afraid of? Am I not here? I am your Mother, the Mother of this people, which will announce the Coming of the Messiah, the Redeemer, and the emergence of the New Humanity.

God will never forsake you, He will always give you strength. This is why He sends Me here, with all the joy of His Heart and of His Love: to give courage and bravery to My children of Brazil so that My children may believe that, despite the tribulations, the Celestial Kingdom approaches and elevates hearts toward God, especially those who live His Word and His Message, especially those who listen to the Sacred Call of the Creator, through the Presence of His Son. For My Son today also sends Me here, to liberate your lives, to appease your hearts so that nothing may frighten you nor disturb you.

You have consecrated Me as your Patroness, and today I consecrate you again to My Heart, although you consecrate yourselves every day, on the spiritual path, to a life of service for others, for those who suffer, and especially although you consecrate your lives so that they might convert into a temple for God in which His most hidden Treasures are kept, in those who are brave apostles of Christ and sustain the flame of faith, the spirit of hope, in spite of all that may happen around.

My son once told you that this time is similar to that which the apostles lived. You are at the same moment as when your Master and Lord was handed over in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Could My Son be capable of retrogressing?

At each whipping, could My Son ask the Eternal Father for that not to happen?

With each drop of His Blood shed up to the top of the Cross, could He repent from what He lived for you?

And even so, He continues to surrender for the world, and He surrenders through the Heart of His Celestial Mother so that all My children may be worthy of the Graces they need in these times.

Will you retrogress? Will you leave the Master alone, as the apostles did?

To Me, this will not happen, because your consciousnesses and your souls have received everything, and have the possibility of living your transformation, you have the possibility of living your time of purification, that which corresponds to each one. In this way, you have the possibility of living the end of times and learning how to go through them with bravery, because if your lives are truly of God, what should you fear?

With the strength of daily overcoming, with the strength of your inner emptiness, with the strength of your divestment, with the power of renunciation and surrender and, above all, with love for sacrifice, this is the time for you to sustain, together with Us, the end of these times, fully trusting that you will always receive what you need, for it is all written, remember? This is why you are here: because it was written.

God has not made a mistake. He brought your consciousnesses to this planet so that you might not only redeem yourselves and reconcile, but also so that you might learn to be free from yourselves, allowing the Love of My Son to govern you forever, and make of your miseries something new. This is why many suffer, because they have not taken the step for My Son to govern them through His Love.

He knows you deeply and He knows why you are here, and the purpose of you being here.

Faithfully follow the path of the Purpose and no longer seek it, do not seek this Purpose. Live this Purpose by being part of it, daring every day to love and live the unknown, and to make of your lives instruments for the Lord, capable of mirroring His Attributes and Virtues.

This is what the world urgently needs, because at each passing day humanity moves away from God's Purpose. And it will be your souls and the souls of your brothers and sisters that will build the New Earth, the new and renewed Earth, healed, redeemed and liberated, which will recover the values and principles that the sacred people of Israel once lived.

Therefore, continue on without fearing anything. One thing I tell you, something you can really live spiritually: do not forget the Gift of the Fear of God, do not forget this Gift of the Holy Spirit. Do not move away from God and do not allow your brothers and sisters, before your eyes, to move away from Him.

This is the school of the rescue of souls, and you must learn from My Son to take care of them, because many souls do not know why they are here and the reason for being here at this time. But throughout the times, We have said everything to you.

It is time to keep building the Spiritual Purpose of Brazil. However, My children, this will begin within yourselves; do not seek it outside. Be an example for God, be an example of life, because many souls are going astray due to very low examples, due to examples that are far from God because of all that is offered by the world, more sophisticated, cunning and tempting, at each day.

But your consciousness must always be on that star that shines in the firmament of your inner universe, the star of the Sacred Divine Purpose, which has no differences, no protagonism, and is the Purpose that unites all in God's Love and, through souls and hearts, is fulfilled little by little, day by day.

Thus, do not be frightened at what you hear or at what you see, but do not be indifferent. Work every day to sensitize your heart, just as you have learned to become sensitized through prayer.

Now, in these final times, you must not only be pillars of Light, you must also be mirrors that reflect that which the world needs, which many souls are losing day by day due to ignorance, lack of discernment, lack of wisdom and lack of much knowledge.

We have left at your feet the pearls of Creation, the most incalculable and inexhaustible treasures, through the presence of the Sacred Inner Centers of the planet.

A day will come, My beloved children, when your consciousnesses will be in that which is universal, and regardless of the cultures, peoples or nations, your hearts, the human heart, will consider this place as important as any other, just as the Hierarchy considers it, without comparisons or differences, without categories. This is the attitude that We need in these times, and this will allow you to calmly be where needed and not where you want to be.

Because this is the time to learn how to transmute and equally distribute this energy. I am not telling you to ask to transmute, but rather for you, through your daily efforts and your surrender, united to the Spiritual Hierarchy, to learn to support this transmuting channel, which is a Law that is unknown to the whole world.

How is it possible for me to be here, for My Son to come and meet you, or even for the Most Chaste Heart of Saint Joseph to present Himself if a Law of permanent Transmutation is not acting?

Each day the planet and humanity needs this Law more. Learn from the saints, learn from those who are selfless, from those who work secretly and whom no one ever sees. However, God does see them all the time and He gives thanks for these brave hearts, because they are free from expectations and personal accomplishments, because they dare to sustain their 'yes.'

It gladdens me to be here with you once again and to be able to accompany you in the coming days. Although I do not come here every day, your Heavenly Mother, through Her perpetual prayer and with predilection, will be present on the inner planes upon the Hill, making the Relics of this Sacred Center shine, especially the treasures that God holds in the hearts that are here.

Therefore, never tire of surpassing yourselves. Remember that My Son told you, once during a Sacred Week, that you would learn to surpass Him in Love. Do you dare to do so?

They answer: "Yes."

Are you sure?

They answer: "Yes."

Even if it hurts?

They answer: "Yes."

This is what it is to be a Christ, this is what My Son needs. Remember what you have said.

I will ask you to make the vow of not complaining, but rather of loving, just as your Heavenly Mother and Saint Joseph silently loved all that God sent them as a test, because behind each lesson there is the possibility of maturing in love, becoming true peace-makers, learning to reconcile, to unite and no longer separate. For unity is the center of Divine Purpose, it is the great mirror that refracts Will, because Will cannot be separated from unity.

When you lose unity or separate, remember that I told you today that in this way you will not be in unity.

Unity will always help you to live obedience, acceptance of changes, expansion of consciousness so that there may be more good people in this world each day, a world of so many contradictions and so much disorder.

But remember, My children, that My Love, the Love of My Son and the Love of Saint Joseph, will always be present on the top of the Hill for the one who wants to come and drink from the Source and quench their thirst, even during the greatest disturbances in their life.

With these Words, I strengthen you for the coming times. I unite you to the Creator Father so that, through His Will, His Determination and Design, you may learn to live the next events to come.

And never forget, My dear children, that My Heart has a place at this Community and that, although you may not believe it, the Heart of your Mother can be repaired here. I know that this is a mystery for you, but submerge into this mystery and, when you learn to repair My Heart, the mystery will be unveiled in the innermost depths of your beings.

Today, My Hands extend over all of Brazil, just as My prayers illuminate this people.

Make My Heart triumph through your union with Christ, by living faith rather than discord, by living love rather than indifference, by living unity rather than separation, by living brotherhood and leaving the differences behind. In this way, you will make of Our Hearts, Sacred Hearts in reparation, so that God may allow us to continue to intercede for this humanity.

Those who seek to give Me their 'yes' on this day, through your consecration as new Children of Mary, draw near.

Bring Me the anointment oil here.

Lord and God of the whole Universe,
Who have created Your Children, Your Creatures, in Your image and likeness, pour out, through Your Anointment,
the spirit of Your Grace and Your Mercy
so that they may be marked by Your Love and Peace, and these souls may recover the path of consecration.
Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Now, through our silent prayer, we will support these sisters and this brother, who, before the Immaculate Heart of Mary and through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, before God, will make their offering and inner consecration to our Most Holy Mother.

We will pray the Hail Mary internally, as long as Our Lady indicates.

May the priests lay their hands.

Let us pray.

Prayer: "Our Father" (in Portuguese).

I consecrate you as My children, Children of Mary.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

We will close this meeting, feeling the Immaculate Heart of Mary and giving thanks for her Presence, for her Unconditional Love, for Her Motherhood and for Her support.

Thank You, Divine Mother, for all that You give us!

In this meeting, we honor You, Lord.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

We may go in peace.
