DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

In these times, My children, the designs of God for humanity are transformed at every moment. His Purpose is the same, unchangeable in the face of what happens, but the way to fulfill it will be transformed every second, according to the response of humanity and to the material and spiritual events that precipitate upon Earth.

I only ask you to be obedient, may you know how to renounce when it is necessary, may you always know how to shape your own plan and will to the Plan and Will of God.

Obedience and the internal, human and spiritual adhesion, to all commands of the Hierarchy, will be the keynote of this time.

So as to not be mistaken, follow the voice of God.

To fulfill His Plan until the end and to be the triumphs of His Heart, let yourselves be guided and transformed by Him.

The faith in your hearts will be your fortress, peace will be your sustenance and the constant prayer will keep balance within your minds, souls and hearts so that nothing will make you perish.

Be meek of heart and firm of spirit, be precise in obedience and faithful in walking without looking behind.

Each moment will be guided by your Creator because this is His Work and your lives must be instruments in the Hands of God in order for everything to be fulfilled.

You have my blessing for this.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
