DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Wherever there is a heart that prays, there God will be, listening to its prayers and with them balancing the evil that surrounds the world.

Wherever there is a heart that serves, there God will be, working through its hands and building fortresses within those who have lost hope.

Wherever there is a heart that loves, there God will be, loving within His children and renewing love, so that it may expand and may make all things be reborn.

Wherever there is a heart that persists in the Divine Purpose, in spite of the adversities and difficulties to manifest it, there God will be, slowly building His Plan, silently preparing a new life, a new humanity.

Wherever there is a heart that loves and serves the Kingdoms of Nature, there God will be, making His creatures learn from one another so that they may live in communion.

Wherever there is a heart that believes in the new times, there God will be, preparing the return of His Son so that He may come to transform and heal all things, introducing a new life upon Earth.

Be those hearts that pray, serve, love, persist, believe, have faith. Thus, children, there God will be, by your side and within your hearts, making of your lives triumphant instruments of His Heart.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
