WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN BARRA DO GARÇAS, MATO GROSSO, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Rewrite the history of humanity, building today the new humankind that should be the humankind of all times.

Dismiss from within you the records of a human being who lives to fulfill their own will and experiment their own power. With renunciation, anonymity and humility, find - in the act of being nothing - the Power of God that fills the empty spaces to receive you.

Dive into your inner world and, from inside out, express what you are. Before wanting to be, to show and to appear, try, yourself, to come to know yourself and, as you come to know yourself more, surrender to God more of what you see of you, without fear of being nothing.

Rewrite the history of humanity with your own life. Do not believe, child, that this history is only written with the life of those men and women who are known in the world and who, from their palaces and from their public lives, think they make a difference in the human history with their own power. This history that is written among the apparent great men and women is, in truth, a history that repeats itself throughout human existence.

Now, the moment has come of writing a new history, this one that is not only built with material facts, but above all with the spiritual experience of union with God of those who, in the silence of their hearts, will empty themselves of themselves and will open so that the Creator will enter into their lives, into their spirits and into their hearts.

For this reason I bring today, before your eyes, an unwritten book and I call you to be a silent and simple example to all human consciousness.

Then, child, get this book and write on it with the acts of your life, write on it with your thoughts, your feelings, write with the emptiness that you find each day in your quest, in your walking to God.

Rewrite the history of humanity and demonstrate to the universe, as to all the Creation, the true essence of this project of creatures that are so similar to God. This essence has never been revealed because the One who was able to live it was not totally understood, with His Example, by the human heart.

If you enter into the depth of your inner world, you will find the essence of the example of Christ there, and more than that, you will find yourself: you will discover what unites you to the Father. And it is there, in this space of your consciousness, that I want you to get this book, to open it and to start to write.

You have My Blessing for that.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph

1.- I speak to each one of those who will read these words and who will know, in the depths of their beings, that I am referring to them.
