Special Message for the Apparition of the Most Holy Queen of the Holy Rosary, transmitted in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías

I am the Blessed Virgin Mary, I am the one Who speaks to you, I am the one Who communicates with you, I am the one Who guides you, I am the one Who loves you, I am the one Who adores you, I am the one Who pacifies you and I am the one Who tempers your hearts.

Dear children, a year ago I was with you in Aurora, Uruguay, and today, after so many events, My Immaculate Heart is with all humanity.

My children, My call is special because My Heart asks you to reignite the flame of devotion in your hearts.

Dear children, it is time for you to awake from the dream, so that you may perceive that you are in a different time.

Now, the only thing the flocks of My Son need to do is to follow in the footsteps of the Lady Clothed with the Sun, because She has already launched towards the Earth the twelve stars of salvation for the world.

They who have eyes to see, let them see, they who have a humble heart to feel, let them feel. It is time to give one's own life to God, to entirely surrender oneself to the Plans of the Most High, and this begins from the feelings and projects in life.

Dear children, through the power of prayer you will perceive that you, like so many other children of Mine, are in the last spiritual ship that is conducted by the Morning Star, Star that for the second time, announces the coming of the Son of God.

Dear children, with your hearts open and your hands in prayer, you will support the greater step that the world must take. Thus, with love, watch over all that you have built with faith during this time, walk with confidence, and be renewed every day with the sublime life of prayer.

My children, the Mother of Heaven accompanies you, blesses you and prays for you. I pray so that the world may now perceive where it is. I pray to the Holy Spirit so that wisdom may awaken in the hearts of My children. I pray crying out to My Son for an opportunity. I pray for those who day after day are diverted from the path of redemption by the action of sin.

Dear children, you must pray with Me without commitments or delays, because prayer is the nourishment for your lives, prayer must give life to your spirits.

My children, who will give everything of themselves so that the world may be saved?

My call wants to reverberate within your hearts, but the call still gets lost in some of you.

Pray to God and love Him. He is greatly offended by human wills at this time. Alleviate the burdens that the world generates for Him, live God in love and truth.

Dear children, pray so that the Father may give you His loving Mercy. If you want the world to change, you must pray for peace, because peace must first occur in your hearts, so that afterwards there may be peace in the whole world. The time that humanity is going through will demand a greater sacrifice of your lives, so that thus the Plans of the Father may be accomplished.

I embrace each one of your hearts, but everything can change when you simply prepare the way for the new through prayer.

Be examples of holiness and faith, be humble and simple, for it will be necessary that many of My children convert to the One and Only God through the prayer of the heart and charity.

Beloved children, I only want you to be in My Peace longer and that from that point, you may live in peace so that others may also live it.

Children, your lives are already growing after all that has been granted to you by the Lady of Heaven during the last years.

Now, the new shepherds, the shepherds of prayer, the shepherds of faith, the shepherds of Mercy, the shepherds who are trained by the Church of My Son Jesus must reorder the life and path of souls.

Pray so that the shepherds of My Son may be guided by the Holy Spirit. Support them, for in their hands lies the path of many souls to Paradise.

Let us unite, in love and prayer, with the shepherds of Christ the Redeemer.

I thank you, dear children, for receiving Me with devotion on this blessed day of Grace!

I bless you, praised be Jesus!

Thank you for listening to My last call for this time.

Mary, Lady of the blessed and most holy Rosary of Peace
