DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Children,

For the Graces that you receive daily to be manifested in your lives as a true transformation, you must not allow them to become lost and pass you by like the wind.

When receiving a divine Grace, meditate upon it, feel it within your essences and, in prayer, ask for it to be expanded and to completely transform your beings.

The action of divine Grace is infinite; however, if you receive it and do not even feel what it is doing within you, it will continue to be latent and invisible to your eyes even after this life.

Imagine, children, that someday you may cross the portals of this world without having fulfilled your own mission and then perceive that infinite Graces were given to you, but you never sought them and or even thought about them.

Your lives, by themselves, are already a great grace; it is an invaluable grace to be in this world, at this time, together with the Divine Messengers, being guided in the minimum details. And you receive a greater and unfathomable Grace for this instruction to become alive within each one of you and so that you may be witnesses of the transformative power of divine Grace and may show the world, with your personal example, the true potential of human beings as children of God.

My children, search within you the Graces we hand to you, feel them and make them grow and multiply, always knowing that the result of the perfect expression of the work of Grace is not for yourselves, but rather for the Divine Plan, for the planet, for humanity. In prayer, observe your own inner world and, in silence, allow yourselves to be permeated and transformed by Grace.

At least send the universe a sign that you are not indifferent to everything you receive and that you aspire for the Creator to express Himself with all His Greatness within each one of you.

I love you and I am telling you all this so that you do not waste the Graces you received, because a time will come when neither Grace nor Mercy will be able to descend upon the human heart, because it will be with the treasures you have already received that you will build your stronghold in the coming times.

Your father and friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
