Daily message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted during the journey from the city of Joinville to the city of Florianópolis, Santa Catarina, Brazil to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

In times of war, let peace reign in the heart.

Let unity reign among My soldiers, so that the enemy does not enter through any gap.

In time of the Apocalypse, may you hear My Voice and prepare yourselves, so that some day you feel peace, just like ears that listen to a warm melody.

Today, dear children, I have come in this critical time to remove you from the danger and the insecurity that My adversary awakens through human disorder.

Therefore, as in the victory of Christ on the Cross, your Mother of the Seven Swords places Herself on your paths to guide you and to remove you from adversity and from the imminent danger that My adversary creates.

Your Heavenly Mother faces the first battles with Her enemy, to prevent spiritual destruction of the hearts, to avoid the souls losing faith in God and in His Plan.

Therefore, the armies of the Mother of the World prepare themselves to respond to unexpected and unplanned situations. As you will see, My children, the rhythm of the events has changed and it will be through these unexpected experiences that you will be transformed into essences of sacrifice and permanent surrender so that, even the most distant soul from God, the most sinful and condemned soul, may find His Mercy.

My beloved children, do not despair. I know it is difficult for your lives to experience so many unexpected changes, but know that I have committed Myself to My Son to remove you from the danger and the deception that My adversary instills in all the collective of humanity, in what I call trends and modernities.

The latest events have begun to unfold between Heaven and chaos and for all souls or for just one, all is allowed.

Follow me, My eyes do not stop observing your small steps.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who protects you more than ever,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
