

Monday, October 8 of 2018

Daily Message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted during the travel from Buenos Aires to San Carlos de Bariloche, Providence of Rio Negro, Argentina, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

To all those who pray with Me, I grant the fortitude of My Heart, so they may go through their purification, so they may learn to overcome the end of times.

To all those who pray with Me, I give the strength of My Heart, because as the Mother Who was present on Earth, I know that My children have need of it, in order to be sustained.

To all those who pray with Me, I give the fortitude of My Heart, because as a Mother, I know that My children, in spite of what happens in these times, will feel protected.

To all those who pray with Me, I give the strength of My Heart, so that at each new step, they feel the power of trusting in God.

To all those who pray with Me, I give the fortitude of My Heart, because I know, as Mother, that My children have never gone through these times and that, for the first time, they are learning to live them.

To all those who pray with Me from their heart, I give the fortitude of My Heart, and I hold them in My arms so that they may feel My maternal refuge.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who blesses you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace