MESSAGE FOR THE MONTHLY APPARITION IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF THE CHILD KING,

TRANSMITTED BY MARY, LADY OF GUADALUPE TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Dear children,

While true Peace is ending in the world, I come to you encounter, once again, to offer you My lap of lovingly light, where you, always, and before any circumstances, will be able to rest.

In this way I open My arms and extend My hands, calling you to live the path of constant reconciliation with the Eternal Father.

My dears, while My words of light are expanded in the whole world, and My Graces reach the hearts that are the most unprotected, I ask that you do not tire of reinforcing the perpetual alliance with Christ, because in this way you will permit that your paths be the favorite paths of My Beloved Son, Jesus.

Today I come to this place, to the little piece of the paradise of salvation and of rescue, that which was built by the hands of the simple ones, those that welcomed the innocent souls. Today I come again to the New Earth to provide relief and serenity to all that seems impossible to remedy and to heal.

In the same way as My Heart will reignite your souls and this place, also the Blessed Heart of Your Mother will illuminate the darkest abysses where many souls are imprisoned everyday.

Since the beginning I have wished to have you with Me in Heaven, to be able to establish the Kingdom of God by means of the redeeming presence of Christ. But you still must learn to love and to forgive; many of you must appreciate and thank for all that with so much effort and love, has been given to each one.

Recognize, children, that the world is already in difficult times. For this, today I ask you to appreciate the sacred places that God has given you by means of the serving souls. Thus, all will continue to be deserving of the Mercy of God, of that Great Source of Graces that very few receive.

The islands of salvation in which many of you live today are unique in the world: as in the Marian Centers of the world, they are sheltered by the law of My Immaculate Heart.

Today I invite you to joy in order to, thus, give comfort to those who do not have it. Today I invite you to reverence and to healing in order to, thus, give relief and inner courage to those who have lost them. Today I invite you to the Love of the Father, so that this powerful affluent may be extended to those who are empty and without God.

Dear children, we are already finalizing a cycle in this planet, and we are about to begin another. I invite you to strengthen your trust in the Creator. In this way you will be assisting so that a great part of the world may be worthy of receiving the Compassion of God.

I am here among you pouring the Divine Laws so that you may be renovated by My Spirit and thus you may proclaim the Love of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit to all those who suffer.

Today will be born an inner child in those who may be willing to incarnate the Love of Christ. It is this Love that will transcend the end of the times, and that will bring all to reaching the final goal: the return to the Heart of Christ.

I thank the most little ones for having sung to Me. The voice of the innocent brings the world closer to the Mercy of God.

I thank you on this day for having answered to My Call!

Who blesses and embraces you strongly with Maternal love,

Mary, Lady of Guadalupe
