DAILY MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Those who have nothing, those who want nothing, those who are poor of spirit and pure of heart will be the pillars of the redemptive work of My Mercy.

In those who aspire for nothing, in those who expect nothing, in those who are empty of themselves establish the pillars of the work of My Mercy and through them I can do more than with hundreds of workers in a vineyard.

By your fruits, you will be recognized, because all that you unite to in Heaven will be united on Earth, and all that you disunite with in Heaven will be disunited on Earth.

This is the time to recognize the virtues and gifts that I make flourish within the hearts of the simple. But it is also time to recognize My Face in the neighbor, in the one who is alone, in the one who is sick, in the thirsty and in the one in agony, because all you do for the smallest on Mine, you are doing to Me.

This is the moment to relieve the heavy cross of suffering, of indifference and of error that hundreds of souls commit, day by day, before the salvific Love of God.

It is the time that, within each one of you, you confirm your surrender to My Sacred Heart.

I bless you and thank you for keeping My Words in your heart.

Your Master and Lord, Jesus Christ
