DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS??

My child, seek to defeat yourself in all things. Practice renunciation, allowing others to express their ideas and feelings, and try being led by your brothers and sisters onto new paths.

If it is very easy and simple for you to be in silence and allow yourself to be led, practice the opposite then and allow those who express themselves so much to learn from you; make your thoughts and feelings available to the universe and allow the Creator to show you a different path to follow, so that in this way you discover spaces in your consciousness that you do not know about until now.

As I speak to the world and to different creatures of this Earth, I need to instruct those who are silent because it is more comfortable not to express themselves and those who express themselves all the time due to the need to impose their thoughts.

Humanity needs to find a balance and learn to commune with what each creature contributes to the world, including here all the Kingdoms of Nature.

So that you may find your balance, you need to go on paths unknown to you, paths that are the opposite of those you always walk, so that in this way, you may discover within yourself other ways of living and manifesting, until you find the perfect balance with everything and when there is no difference for you between speaking or being in silence, teaching or learning because both things are necessary, each in their time.

Practice these little examples and you will find ample paths before you.

For the balance of the human heart,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
