

Thursday, August 8 of 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

I Am the Renewing Blood that enters into the heart of all of beings to give them eternal life. I Am the Water that peacefully purifies each interior and, thus, ignites the Codes of Light that will liberate Mine from sin.

For this reason, the Eucharist is the symbol and the faithful covenant that I have left for you so that you would unite to Me. The one who stops communing with Me in the Eucharist acts as if he or she were leaving Me aside. There is nothing more important than your union with Me.

My Work will not be able to be constructed in lives that resemble great places built of sand. My bases must be founded upon the pillar of prayer, the pillar of communion, the pillar of confession and the pillar of service. In this way an orderly and aligned temple will be raised with My Christic Laws.

As long as the wineskin holds with mistrust your relics of yesterday, My New Wine will be waiting in Heaven to be poured only into the redeemed wineskins.

It is time to decide in which place you will want to be. The stable and the barn are already open because the farmer from Heaven will be arriving to separate the old straw from the good and mature wheat.

All the decision will be in your hands and prayer will help you to take the great leap towards My Sacred Heart.

Under the Good of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for living My words with love.

Christ Jesus