DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS??

Love your fellow beings without limits, as if God Himself multiplied in each of your brothers and sisters and called you to serve Him and accompany Him in His development within beings.

Love your fellow beings without limits, so that your love may fecundate the hearts of your brothers and sisters with the seed of hope of one day fully experiencing fraternity and unity among you all.

Love your fellow beings without limits, and even though your works are sometimes not able to reach all creatures of the Earth so directly, love all the same, and in your spirit, let love permeate all beings, just as the Lord your God and your Father does, calling you to follow in His footsteps.

Love your fellow beings without limits, with a true, spiritual, mature, simple, in service and fraternal love, for in this way, God Himself will be able to love through you.

Love your fellow beings without limits, and give all of yourself for the concretization of the Divine Purpose in others and on the planet.

Love your fellow beings without limits, pray for the world, cry out on your knees for those who lose their faith. Feel in your chest the pain of those who live without hope and carry your plea to the feet of the Creator in such a true way as if the despair of your brothers and sisters was yours.

Love your fellow beings without limits and learn to help them as God expects rather than how you want to. Love with the Heart of the Father within your heart and you wholly within Him. In this way, you will know how to love beyond emotions and serve beyond the impulses of the human ego.

You will love just because love dwells within you, and you will not gratify yourself because of experiencing love, because love is in you and it leads you into a giving of yourself, in a natural way.

What is love worth if not to be gifted?

Love your fellow beings without limits, with prayers, with silence, with service, with understanding, with welcome, with a smile, with a correction, with a warning, with an embrace, with care or with distancing. Love as each one needs and not how you need to love.

Love and give the other your love, even if for you the way of doing it causes pain.

Learn to give of yourself, to be and to live the Law of Love, which is the law of this Earth, it is the beginning and the end of human existence.

I will accompany you and will love you always, so that you may avail yourself of My example to love your fellow beings even more, without limits.

Your father and companion,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
