WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Child, look within yourself and seek in your inner world the likeness of God. Recognize, in this way, the true value of life, which does not lie in anything of what you appear to be. Discover, in this act of knowing and recognizing your own inner world, your own essence, the meaning of life on Earth.

It is transcending the personality and the human appearance and entering in the depth of yourself that you will find the union with God: the reason why you live and evolve each day.

It is not for aggrandizing yourself to human eyes that you exist. It is not for accumulating goods and wealth, temporary honors and worldly compliments that you live. It is for discovering that, beyond what humankind thinks of itself, lies the Truth.

The great celestial mystery is that the Nothingness and the Wholeness can be found in humankind at the same time and in order to find one you must first recognize the other. That is, in order to discover the Wholeness that exists within you, you must first recognize yourself as the Nothingness.

The greatest mistake of the creatures of God, which has detached them from the Father and which lead them today to have to follow this path of life on Earth, was not recognizing that Unity is a single principle for the whole Life: to unite to God, it is necessary to unite to your neighbor. To unite to God in oneself it is necessary to unite to the same God that inhabits the neighbor.

If there is not unity with Life, there is not unity with the Father. If someone wants to be superior to someone else, it is to the same God that their desire of superiority projects itself. In order to be humble before God, you will have to be humble before your neighbor.

When you recognize that everything is part of the Creation and that everything must return to the Creator, then you will live in you the respect that leads to the true Unity.

With that, today I only tell you, child, do not fear to be humble before your neighbor, because it is before of God Himself that humility shines. Do not fear to be considered nothing and lose all that makes you feel great and superior to the others, because it is being small and nothing that you will finally find the Wholeness before you.

As long as was your path to arrive here will be your path of return to the Father. However, if you place your feet in the correct pathway now, you will no longer be lost, distancing yourself more and more from God.

Recognize without fear what keeps you apart from the Creator and turn your gaze within. Find there the path of return to the House of The One who has been expecting you from the day you turned your back on Him.

See before yourself the door of humiliation and the pathway of sacrifice: through there you must cross and there you must walk.

Your Father and Companion in the surrender of self,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
